

STORY OF A REVOLUTION IN CONSTANTINOPLE NOT VERIFIED.

WILD REPORT ABOUT THE RIVER STEAMER ONISBO SULTAN.

SULTAN OF TURKEY.

Dispatch Says He Has Abdicated But News Cannot Be Verified.

NEW YORK, June 19.—A news agency reported here today that there had been a revolution at Constantinople and that the Sultan had abdicated.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The State Department has received no confirmation of the reported revolt at Constantinople.

LONDON DOES NOT KNOW.
LONDON, June 19.—The Foreign Office here has heard nothing of the trouble at Constantinople.

Numerous telegrams have been received in London today from Constantinople, but none of them mention any unusual situation.

One dispatch, which was filed at Constantinople at 4:05 o'clock this afternoon, not only does not mention any trouble there, but announces the departure of H. B. Smith, president of the council of administration of the Ottoman public debt, for London to attend a meeting of the Ottoman bondholders.

MYSTERIOUS LANGUAGE.
BELGRADE, June 19.—Leaflets are being sold on the streets today containing reports hinting in mysterious language of a crisis at Constantinople and the abdication of the Sultan. The source of the report is not given and well informed circles discredit them, but they have created much excitement in Belgrade.

IN COLLISION.

Runs Into An Iron Ship and is Beached to Save Her From Sinking.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—The river steamer Onisbo, which left here yesterday evening for Stockton, ran into the iron ship Castle Rock in Carquinen straits, near Port Costa.

The steamer's bow was stove in and she was beached on the Benicia flats. The passengers and crew were taken on the steamer T. C. Walker and conveyed to Stockton.

The Onisbo is commanded by Captain George H. Goodell, but at the time of the collision was in charge of Pilot William Jarvis. It was Goodell's watch below and he was to take charge at midnight.

When the vessel struck the iron ship the captain was in a sound sleep. He at once rushed on deck, and realizing that the Onisbo was about to sink, headed for the mud flats, where the steamer was grounded.

The collision came without the slightest warning, although it is said the night was clear. The big ship lay in the shadow just above the Solano's slip.

The Onisbo was behind time.

She was steaming rapidly through the smooth water when the shock came.

Some of the passengers had retired.

Others were still on deck, but all were thrown into confusion when the cry "She's sinking" was raised.

The water came pouring through a jagged hole in the bow and the hissing of the escaping steam was discernible above the noise.

Pilot Jarvis explained that the ship was lying in the shadow of the shore and had no lights out.

The passengers remained on board the disabled steamer until early in the morning when the steamer T. C. Walker, which had also been delayed by the strike, reached the scene.

The passengers of the Onisbo and their baggage were transferred to be taken to Stockton. As far as can be learned, not a passenger of the disabled steamer was lost or injured.

There were many Chinese in the cabin built for carrying them in the hold, but all were saved. The damage to the Onisbo has not yet been estimated.

It is said that the mishap was due to the breaking of the lever of the Onisbo's steering gear.

The steamer Onisbo is a river boat belonging to the California Transportation Company, but leased to the Union Transportation Company of this city. She is 187 feet long, 36 feet beam and 6 feet depth of hold. Her tonnage is 625 gross, or 605 net. She was built in 1900 at Woods' Island, Cal.

WILL FLOAT HER.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—According to Pilot Jarvis, who has arrived here, the freight deck of the steamer is above water line and it is not thought there will be much difficulty in floating and repairing her.

RAILROAD CASE IS OPENED.

Garmen and Corporation to Present Evidence.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—A large force of railroad employers and employees assembled at the Rialto building this morning at the beginning of the taking of testimony in the case of the employees of the United Railroads of San Francisco against the employing corporation.

Among the first to arrive were General Manager Chapman and Secretary Willcutt. They were followed by David Young of the firm of Brown Brothers, bankers of New York, President Holland, A. A. Moore, T. J. Ford and E. J. Livernash, the latter representing the employees.

The testimony taken by Commissioner Muraskey will be sent to Arbitrators Calhoun, Mahone and Straus of New York.

In the course of a month the gentlemen will arrive here in time to hear the argument to be presented by the attorneys in the case.

WILL BUILD TO SALT LAKE

SENATOR CLARK SECURE PRIVILEGES OVER SANTA FE.

LOS ANGELES, June 19.—General Manager A. G. Wells of the Santa Fe system will go East tonight, bearing with him final papers in the transaction by which the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad acquires trackage privileges over the Santa Fe line from Daggett to Colton.

The term of the lease is not made public, but it is presumed to be for a long period of years.

The Salt Lake road has completed its line from Los Angeles to a point near Riverside and by the trackage arrangement just completed, with the Santa Fe, will shortly have through connection to Daggett.

It is understood that men and material are being rapidly assembled at Daggett and that active construction of the road eastward from Daggett will commence about July 1.

It was first announced that Senator Clark's road would use the Santa Fe tracks to Riverside, but the change to Colton was made in order that the Salt Lake road might have the additional connection at that point with the Southern Pacific.

Despite the denials of Senator Clark that E. H. Harriman has any interest in the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake road, it is positively stated by prominent railroad officials here, that the latter at the present time owns an absolute one-half interest in the new road and that this fact will appear in proper time.

CHIEF WANTS WOMAN HELD ON MURDER CHARGE.

There is a little disagreement between Chief of Police Hodgkins and the District Attorney's office. The former insists that Mrs. Annie Ross, the companion of Murderer Victor Walker, and who is believed to be implicated deeper in the crime than she has admitted, must be charged with murder, while the latter department declares that there is no evidence to show the woman to be connected with the crime. Dusty law books have been referred to and cases cited by the District Attorney's office to show that the woman can not be legally connected with the murder of aged Mrs. Elizabeth Leroy. But Chief Hodgkins holds that the woman's own testimony during the preliminary examination of Walker and the conflicting testimony given by her and the Cochran woman, together with other evidence, is enough to charge the woman with murder and have a verdict of manslaughter brought in by the jury. "Most certainly I will hold Mrs. Ross in jail," said Chief of Police Hodgkins today. "I have been unable to get the District Attorney's office to issue a complaint against her, but I will make one more attempt with some new evidence I have gathered, as I believe that she is deeper in the crime than she has confessed. She is a shrewd woman and exceedingly cunning, but I have caught her in a number of lies and her whole conduct through this case has led me to deduct that she is deep in the crime. There must be some part of the law by which she can be charged with the murder of Mrs. Leroy."

SAYS POISON WAS IN HIS WHISKY.

Officials Will Try to Clear up San Leandro Mystery.

Dr. Mason Will Not Give Out the Cause of Death.

SAN LEANDRO, June 19.—"When Thomas Gill got out of the buggy to come up to my office, he said he was very sick. He was also rigid. When he got into the office, he went into convulsions. He appeared to be in a delirium and said that he thought he had been poisoned by something in his whiskey."

These were the words of Dr. B. F. Mason, the physician of this place, who attended Thomas Gill, who died suddenly yesterday morning, under suspicious circumstances and whose condition after he had come to the physician's office for treatment, the doctor was describing.

"What was the cause of Gill's death?" asked the TRIBUNE reporter.

"I don't care to state," was the reply "because I have been his family physician for a number of years."

The doctor then told how Gill had been driven to his (the doctor's) home for relief and how he, (the doctor) had gotten into Gill's buggy and driven the sick man to his (the doctor's) office.

There, Dr. Mason gave ether and emetics and administered a hypodermic injection of morphine for the purpose of compelling Gill to vomit, but without avail.

It was apparent to the doctor that Gill was in danger of death. Not wishing to have him die on his hands, Dr. Mason called Dr. Torrey in.

Both doctors tried to relieve the sufferer without success.

Finally at 8 o'clock, Gill was taken home by Dr. Mason, but he was still dangerous ill. He died a few hours later.

ALL IS QUIET AT RANDSBURG.

MINERS BELIEVE THAT THE TROUBLE IS NEAR AN END.

BAKERSFIELD, June 19.—Mining men of Randburg are now of the opinion that the Yellow Aster Mining Company of that place will give in to the strikers and pay the scale demanded as soon as the mills and pumping plant are again cleaned up.

Practically every miner now in camp is at work leasing, dry-washing or working in mines which are paying the scale. There is no suffering, no disturbance. The local union is simply able to care for all unemployed men. The union men have faith in Manager McMahon of the Butte and it is asserted that they will be granted the scale asked and probably be at work before the end of the week. One of the Yellow Aster shift bosses said to the representative of the Californian today that if the mine remains closed a month longer, it will require much work and a large expense to clean out the drift and slopes and that much damage has already been done.

The belief is gaining ground that as soon as the mills and pumping plant have been cleaned thoroughly, the company will give in.

CANNOT FORCE COMPANY TO LAY PIPES.

Judge Ellsworth Decides Test Case in Favor of the Water Company.

Judge Ellsworth this morning decided that the Town Trustees of Berkeley have not the right to regulate the size of the water pipes to be laid by the Contra Costa Water Company. The matter came up by the arresting of Guy Hyde, Chief, an employee of the company, for an alleged violation of an ordinance passed by the trustees, which said that no pipes of less than four inches in diameter should be laid in the city. A two-inch main had been laid to supply four houses and Chief was arrested, and in order to make a test case of it, instead of submitting to a fine, a writ of habeas corpus was sworn out and the question of whether the city had a right to pass such an ordinance was squarely presented to the court by the company.

Judge Ellsworth, in his opinion, says: "The petitioner was arrested for the violation of Ordinance No. 310 of the Town of Berkeley. That ordinance declares in its preamble that the Board of Trustees of the town has adjudged and determined that the public interests and necessity requires that the size of the water mains in the public streets shall be fixed and regulated so as to adequately protect the lives and property of the citizens of the town, and then proceeds to enact that the size of all water mains shall be four inches in diameter."

"It is conceded by both sides that the Town of Berkeley could not compel the Contra Costa Water Company to lay a water pipe in Ninth street, but it is contended that if the company seeks to avail itself of its constitutional right to lay a pipe, it must lay a pipe of such a size as the city prescribes and this authority on the part of the town is claimed to be found in the ordinance of the right to make police regulations."

"It may be that if the water company were seeking to do something in connection with the laying of its pipes detrimental to the public health, that the city could interfere to prevent it, but if the real point of the matter is that the company, while doing a beneficial thing, is not doing a thing so beneficial as the town desires, then I fail to see what the city's police power has to do with the question."

"It being conceded that the company cannot be forced to lay a pipe large enough to supply water for flushing sewers and for adequate protection against fire, must the residents upon the street also be precluded from getting water for ordinary domestic purposes if the company is unwilling or unable to supply more?"

"Suppose a citizen of the town has a well of sufficient capacity to supply himself and a few of his neighbors with water for ordinary domestic purposes, but not for other purposes, is it in the power of the municipality to prevent him from supplying what he is able to supply, simply because he cannot supply more?"

"It may be that under the ordinance in question that the Town Trustees could, in their discretion, grant the privilege of laying a pipe of less than four inches in diameter. But the power to do this, in their discretion, implies the power to refuse such privilege, and so to prevent a person so situated from exercising his constitutional right to lay down pipes in the street."

"The grant of the right to lay down pipes, to supply water for domestic and all other purposes does not, in my opinion, mean that if the party cannot, or will not, supply water enough for domestic and all other purposes, he shall not have the privilege of laying down pipes at all for the purpose of supplying such water as he may be able or willing to supply."

"The hardship of the situation may be a good argument in favor of municipal ownership of water works, but cannot be used as an argument in favor of the exercise of a power on the part of the town which the constitution has not given it."

"It follows from these views that the petitioner is entitled to be discharged, and it is so ordered."

"JOHN ELLSWORTH, Judge.
June 19, 1903."

WATERLOO, Iowa, June 19.—While going at a terrific rate and turning on a curve unaware of the approach of a freight train, passenger No. 2, east-bound of the Illinois Central crashed head-on into the freight.

Nine persons were killed and both engines reduced to junk. The engineers and firemen of each crew are dead.

The dead:
JOHN R. GRIFFIN of Waterloo, engineer of the passenger.
E. G. BANTZ, fireman, of Waterloo, of the passenger.
FRED SCOMMAN, of Waterloo, engineer of the freight.
J. C. MILES, of Waterloo, fireman of the freight.
E. R. STICKNEY, of Waterloo, THREE TRAMPS, stealing a ride.
ONE IMMIGRANT, unidentified.
MAIL CLERK, name not known.

The injured:
CHARLES MORAN, of Independence, arm broken.
GEORGE, HURC, negro, Independence, internal injuries.

The passenger train had orders for the right of way, the freight crew having misunderstood the wording of its orders. The passenger was going at a rate of fifty miles an hour. The collision took place upon a sharp curve and it is stated the engineers were not aware of the approach of the opposing train until within a few feet of each other. Had it not been for the make-up of the train, the pullman being placed in the center with the passenger coaches in the rear, the death list would have been appalling.

The wreck occurred at Raymond, seven miles east of Waterloo, at 2:45 this morning. All the surgeons available in Waterloo were sent out on a special train as soon as the news was received.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., June 19.—Miss Florence Stoddard, the only daughter of Secretary to the Treasury city could interfere to prevent it, but if the real point of the matter is that the company, while doing a beneficial thing, is not doing a thing so beneficial as the town desires, then I fail to see what the city's police power has to do with the question."

"It being conceded that the company cannot be forced to lay a pipe large enough to supply water for flushing sewers and for adequate protection against fire, must the residents upon the street also be precluded from getting water for ordinary domestic purposes if the company is unwilling or unable to supply more?"

"Suppose a citizen of the town has a well of sufficient capacity to supply himself and a few of his neighbors with water for ordinary domestic purposes, but not for other purposes, is it in the power of the municipality to prevent him from supplying what he is able to supply, simply because he cannot supply more?"

BONDS FOR NEW PESTHOUSE

PROJECT TO BE SUBMITTED TO A VOTE OF THE PEOPLE.

It was announced today that the Council is unanimously in favor of providing this city with a permanent pesthouse, which will be based upon modern ideas and maintained in a manner which shall tend to the peace of mind of the public.

It is the intention of the Council to include the question of such a structure in the propositions, which are to be submitted to the people for the issuance of bonds for permanent improvements and supplying the city with all needed institutions.

For the purpose of looking into and reporting on all phases of the question, the City Council's Committee on Bond Propositions has appointed Councilman E. H. Pendleton.

As soon as Mr. Pendleton was telegraphed with this authority, he made known the fact to Health Officer von Adelung, and the latter called together the Hospital Committee of the Board of Health, comprising Dr. J. T. Kitchings, Dr. S. H. Buteau and Dr. A. L. Cunningham to meet Mr. Pendleton for the purpose of discussing the project in a systematic and practical manner.

Councilman Pendleton and the last three doctors mentioned there resolved themselves into a committee for the purpose of considering the following propositions, and reporting on them to the main committee on bond propositions:

The kind of structure needed to take care of people afflicted with contagious diseases; whether or not the pesthouse may be built outside the city limits; the best place in which to locate such a structure; the cost of such a building and site; the cost of maintenance and the estimated savings to the city in a year from an institution of this kind.

Health Officer von Adelung says he knows that the saving would amount to several thousands every year, but that the inquiry has not proceeded far enough to give, in exact figures, an estimate of the savings.

STORM OFF WALES.

LONDON, June 18.—The storm off Carnarvon, Wales, today was accompanied by two strong easterly winds. The inhabitants were alarmed by the rocking of their houses, but no damage was reported. The north winds were so severe at Bangor North Wales, that the patients were carried out of the hospital into the grounds and the congregation badly frightened.

HE SURRENDERED HIMSELF.

CHIEF OF "GET RICH QUICK" CONCERN APPEARED IN COURT.

ST. LOUIS, June 18.—E. J. Arnold, proprietor of the Arnold Turf Investment Company, chief of the exploded "get rich quick" concern, appeared at the Four Courts shortly after 11 o'clock today and surrendered himself. Arnold, who is charged in indictments with fraud, has been missing since his company went to pieces in February. Attorney Rows accompanied Arnold to the Four Courts. Arnold stated that he was ready to give bond. Arnold's manager, L. A. Gill, is also under indictment and has been missing from the city.

Upon surrendering himself, Arnold announced that he was ready to give bond to answer the seven indictments against him. The bonds for $500 on each charge were prepared immediately, and after being signed, Arnold, accompanied by his wife, attorney and bondsmen, drove away. The indictments charge Arnold with embezzlement as follows: the same as that returned against J. J. Ryan of the company bearing his name, which was dismissed last week.

Arnold declined to make a statement as to his whereabouts since he was sought by the Grand Jury after the collapse of his company. He also denied all knowledge of the whereabouts of L. A. Gill, his manager, who was indicted with him.

NEGROES COMMIT MURDER.

THEY ATTEMPT TO HOLD UP TWO WHITE MEN AND SHOOT THEM.

HUTCHINSON, Kan., June 18.—John Newberry, a bridge carpenter of West Plains, Mo., was shot and killed and Rob Gross, bridge carpenter of the same place, was shot and seriously wounded by two negroes on a Santa Fe train early today.

The white men had just quit a bridge gang and were making their way to the harvest fields.

The negroes attempted to hold them up and a fight followed.

The negroes escaped. The Sheriff and a posse are searching for them, and they will be summarily dealt with if caught.

Gross examined his partner and saw he was dead. Bleeding from his wounds he then made his way to the home of a farmer, who brought him to this city. He was shot through the mouth and arm.

ATTORNEY LEACH DISQUALIFIED.

The trial of Arthur Kennedy, charged with battery upon eight-year-old Alice Renwick, was commenced in the Police Court today before a jury. Owing to the fact that Prosecuting Attorney Leach knows the parties interested and that he was approached by them before the trial, he declared in court that he considered himself disqualified from acting and his place was taken by Attorney Brown from the District Attorney's office.

EXCITEMENT OVER AN ALLEGED MIRACLE.

CROWDS IN FRONT OF A SHRINE IN LITTLE ITALY.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Intense excitement prevails in Little Italy over an alleged miracle performed at the Shrine of St. Calogero Di Saliccia. For hours after the report went out oracles of every description hurried to the Broom street corner, where the altar had been erected.

Finally a parade was organized, in which all the devotees in that quarter marched.

It was the first time that the birth of the Saint had been celebrated in this country and the zeal of the worshippers was excessive. Men, women and children knelt before the altar on the sidewalk or in the middle of the street and many were crushed in their effort to get close to the altar.

On the altar is an image of the Saint in the act of healing a child. The altar is constructed of pine.

Things Look Different From Different Points of View.

While a few corner grocers may have serious objections to our way of conducting a grocery business, the greater portion of the population has put its stamp of approval upon our Money Saving plan of distributing household supplies, and being in some sense servants of the people we try to please the majority.

Combinations to Boycott

There is a combination formed among some of the pretentious but diminutive sized Grocers who try to invoke the aid of the San Francisco wholesale Grocery Houses not to sell their goods or they would withdraw their patronage, endeavoring to cut off our supply or FORCE US TO RAISE PRICES. In fact, everything that could be done, was done to drive us out of the Grocery Business, but we are still going ahead doing a Big Business and CUTTING PRICES deeper and deeper.

We are Here to Stay and Will Dictate Prices on Groceries and there is no combination strong enough to stop us. The goods we have are the best that can be bought, we buy in large quantities, we pay spot cash for them, and they belong to us, and we shall sell them for any price we see fit—give them away if we choose.

THE WAGE EARNER'S DOLLAR represents hours of arduous toil, when that dollar is spent it should command its fullest buying power, to give it that power is one of the fundamental principles upon which we built our business. The public know this, they appreciate the efforts which this store is constantly making to give them a bigger dollar's worth than they can get elsewhere, we ask that no assertion made by us should go unchallenged. Apply the test at any time and you'll find us prepared to back up our promise. We have made it possible for your dollars to do double duty in buying your Groceries of us.

Why We Succeeded So Quickly in Building Up the Largest Grocery Business in Alameda County—Because

We buy and sell for cash only and are not owned by any wholesaler or manufacturer, we buy our goods in open market, where the house with the best goods and lowest prices gets the order. We do not misrepresent, we mean what we say and say what we mean and live up strictly to the letter and spirit of our advertisements. We permit no one to undersell us, we have a smaller expense ratio than any store we know of, and can afford to sell cheaper, we sell at one price only, we give no rebates nor discounts to any one, a child can buy here as safely as an expert. We are attending to our own business and are not bothering about what our competitors do. We are quick in adjusting claims without any lengthy arguments. We refund money, it's your best safeguard. Whenever you do not like your purchase, you can get your money back quick as a wink at this store.

The Prices We Put on Groceries

Mean that we want you to buy your Groceries in Oakland, why go to the City when you can buy much cheaper of us? We do not ask your patronage as a right because we do business in Oakland, we ask you to come here because it pays you to trade at SALINGER'S. We can conclusively prove to you that the higher the grades of Merchandise you buy of us, the more money we can save you.

We are continuously improving our delivery system and are now giving much quicker service, and expect within a short time to have a perfect and expedient delivery service. You have been very kind to us with your patronage and we ask pardon for any little failings or delays that might have inconvenienced you, we are all the time trying to better this store's service, and with a little patience on your part we can accomplish wonders.

Allow us by this method to thank you for your past liberal patronage, and hoping to merit a continuance of your favors and confidence,

We remain yours obediently,

This is a sample of how we cut prices. Can you buy them anywhere else at this price?—try it. All round town you will see "RECRUIT" Cigars advertised as "the best nickel cigar on earth." And so it is. What then shall be said of it when sold at 2 1-2 cents?

BODIES ARE FOUND AT HEPPNER.

Some Are Frozen and Others Are in Horrible Condition.

HEPPNER, Ore., June 19.—The developments of yesterday afternoon and today show that the Heppner death list will pass estimates of the last two days. There are several large shifts of men at work and corpses are being found many miles away. At the rate bodies are coming in, the list will easily reach 200 actually found, identified and buried. Many bodies have undoubtedly been carried to the Columbia river forty miles away and will never be recovered. While the bodies yesterday and today were in horrible condition, many were frozen stiff when brought into the hot sun, a phenomenon rendered possible by their covering of hair. Great banks of frozen hair still lie in the drifts with bodies. Other people were killed before a wall of hail during the flood, they are scattered about and their flesh whittled away by a cold breeze. The carcasses of provisions have arrived at Lexington for the destitute. The work of the relief committee is being more arduous. Hungry and cold bodies are being found and being cared for as rapidly as possible. The name of Otis Bullis, 23 years old, Tower City, N. D., is added to those being.

INSANE ON OVERLAND TRAIN.

P. C. Laughlin of Illinois is Taken in Charge.

A man whose name is supposed to be P. C. Laughlin was taken off the overland train this morning at Sixteenth street. He had become violently insane on his way from his home in Illinois to Los Angeles. He is a young man, well dressed and apparently about twenty-five years of age. Nothing of the circumstances are known as the conductor of the train who delivered him over to the authorities went on to San Francisco with his train. When the train pulled into the Sixteenth street station at 11:30 o'clock, the conductor signaled the policeman stationed there and the two went aboard the train and Laughlin was taken off. The police patrol was summoned and he was taken to the insane ward of the Receiving Hospital where he will be held until communication can be had with his home. His train passed read from Ogden to Los Angeles but he said that he came from Illinois. He is a member of the Maccabees and the secretary of the organization has been communicated with in this city. Walter Johnson is confined in the insane ward of the Receiving Hospital on the complaint of Dr. A. C. Dukes and E. B. Davis, who state that Johnson attacked them with a chair and attempted to brain them. He was exceedingly violent and was taken to the City Prison and later removed to the hospital. A young man by the name of Robert G. Graham was taken off an electric car this morning by two friends who gave him names of French and Woods and taken to the Receiving Hospital in a sort of spasm but later acted so strangely that he was placed in the insane ward. He is 22 years of age and it is said that he lives in Berkeley and that with his brother, he conducts a restaurant there. His family has been communicated with.

CABINET MEETS IN WASHINGTON

IMPORTANT AFFAIRS OF STATE ARE DISCUSSED BY LEADERS.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The time of the cabinet meeting today was consumed in a large part by the consideration of the legal questions involved in the decision of the United States Government to disregard the decision of the court of Virginia and seize the uncompleted gunboat Galveston at the shipyard in Richmond. Attorney-General Knox presented a carefully prepared opinion on the subject strongly affirming the right of the Government to disregard the injunction of the Virginia court, which forbids the resumption of work on the Galveston pending a settlement of the claim of the subcontractors who have not been paid for material furnished.

Attorney-General says: "One further point remains to be considered. The letter of the Secretary of the Navy requests to be authorized to employ if necessary the military force of the government at his disposal for the execution of his orders in the premises. I am loath to believe that occasion for such execution of the federal powers will arise, being confident that that intention to interfere with the national rights under the judicial authority of the State of Virginia would be promptly disposed of and denied by the chancery court. For this reason I shall defer answering that question."

The cabinet after considering this opinion unanimously decided that the Government case was sound and the program outlined yesterday by Mr. Moody should be pursued. An effort will be made to launch the boat Monday if conditions permit. It is intimated that information will be conveyed to the Virginia justice who granted the injunction in this case that he exceeded his proper function and it is expected that he will withdraw from what the Attorney-General regards as an untenable position, thus avoiding any clash at Richmond.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS PRESENT PLAY AT THEATER

The graduating class of the High School presented "The Taming of the Shrew" at the Macdonough Theater last night. The house was packed and the play was a great success. Several of those in the cast have been very successful in previous school plays and their past efforts were remembered last night with applause. Miss Cornelia Stratton and Grover O'Connor, who both scored decided hits in "The Merchant of Venice" last year, and Carl Whitmore were easily the stars in "The Taming of the Shrew." Whitmore was not only a handsome "Petruchio," but his portrayal of the character merits the highest praise. Miss Stratton's "Katharina" and young O'Connor's "Grumio" also received excellent interpretations. Miss Ruth Salinger was very fascinating as "The Widow," and Miss Ziegenfuss made a pleasing "Blanca." The costumes were rich and altogether the play was quite acceptable, showing earnest study on the part of the young people. Vere W. Hunter of the University of California, was stage manager and much of the success of the play is due to him. Joseph Kendall, assisted by several young friends, furnished the music.

NO CONNECTION WITH FIRM. DEATH OF MRS. GO TO SEE THE KING.

HERMAN EPPINGER JR. HAS MADE A SUCCESS IN BUSINESS.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—A few days ago a San Francisco paper published a picture of Herman Eppinger Jr., with a statement connecting him directly with the firm of Eppinger & Company.

As a matter of fact, Herman Eppinger Jr. is the son of Jacob Eppinger, the senior partner of Eppinger & Company, but he has not now and never had any connection with the firm and for the past eighteen years has been engaged in business in Paso Robles where he conducted a large general merchandise business in that part of the country.

In addition to this he was for twelve years and is now, president of the Bank of Paso Robles. He is one of the largest individual property owners in San Luis Obispo County and through that whole locality his commercial and social standing is of the best.

In addition to this he is a large property owner in Oakland and East Oakland and has several holdings within the heart of the city and also several large holdings in the Twenty-third avenue district.

If you are interested in Japanese art the exhibit we are now making will give you great pleasure. Sometimes one purse will represent the handwork of several months of a patient Japanese artist.

The fabric, the design, the solid silver chains chased with solid gold, the large carved ivory knobs, the metal ornamentation, the illuminated leather lining—all is most cleverly and uniquely done by hand.

Prices are 3.50, 4.50, 6.00, 6.50, 9.50 to 32.50

At 32.50 we are showing the handsomest Netsuki purse ever imported in Oakland. GAME AT SACRAMENTO YESTERDAY NEARLY ENDED IN A RIOT.

Following is the standing of the clubs in the coast league race:

Club	W	L	Pct.
Los Angeles	40	28	.587
Sacramento	40	27	.595
San Francisco	40	22	.647
Seattle	37	20	.649
Oakland	31	40	.438
Portland	21	41	.339

The baseball game in the Capital City yesterday afternoon went to the home Senators by virtue of superior all around playing. Mike Fisher's new bat hit Graham for fifteen hits which netted them seven runs. The best that the Recruits could do was to score one little tally and connect with the ball but five times safely.

One of the prettiest baseball games of the season was that played at the High street lot across the bay yesterday afternoon. The score was San Francisco 1, Seattle 0. Both teams combined made but seven hits and one error. The pitching of Whalen and Hughes was of the stellar order and both were backed up by their team mates in grand style.

Los Angeles took another fall out of Portland yesterday afternoon and when the game was over the black-board read 8 to 2 in favor of the Angels. Gray did the slab work for the Morleyites and was very effective, allowing but four hits. Engle, for Portland, was touched up for fifteen safeties, many of which were of the two-pack variety.

Townsend, Mike Fisher's husky first baseman, is meeting the ball in the most approved fashion and made four hits out of five trips to the bat yesterday afternoon. If he keeps up the pace he has started this week he will soon head the batting list with a percentage of .999. So far this week he has been at bat fifteen times and has made eleven safe hits.

The game at Sacramento yesterday came near breaking up in a row with a free-for-all fight on the side. It happened in the eighth inning when Pete Lohman was ordered off the field. Pete could not see the wisdom of the order and refused to go, as there was no consolation or officer present. Mike Fisher attempted to do the honors but was met by a bunch of the Recruits armed with bats and belligerent looks. After a little parleying Lohman betook himself out of the field and the game went on but the local team went to pieces and played miserable ball.

"Kid" Toman of the Los Angeles team made the only two errors made by the Angels yesterday. If it hadn't been for those two errors Portland would have been shut out.

Bert Delmas was the bright particular star of the game across the bay yesterday. He played seven hard chances without a slip and made the lone run that won the game.

Way Hughes received a warm reception in San Francisco yesterday afternoon when he made his first appearance in three years. He displayed the same rare form that made him famous in the National League. He held the hard hitting Trisco bunch down to three little singles.

The intelligence has leaked out that the two new players that Elwing has coming from the East are Walters and Kling, who have been playing with Fern Hauke in the Three Star League. This has not been confirmed in official circles. According to the report the men will arrive on Sunday and play their first game in an Oakland uniform on Tuesday against Portland. It is claimed that they are fast fielders but their records show light stick work. Walters batted .276 last season and Kling met the ball at .238.

The San Francisco team is to be reinforced by a new second baseman within the next two weeks. Treasurer Goodman is the authority for this statement and negotiations are pending and will be concluded as soon as a little difference in terms is adjusted.

Park Wilson wisely allowed Hanlon to remain out of the game yesterday. The big first baseman is far from strong and a few days' rest will put him in good shape.

The Argonauts, a fast amateur baseball team whose ages average eighteen years, are anxious to get a match for Sunday, June 21st, with any team that averages eighteen years of age. Address challenges to George Reier, 215 Fifth street.

Quite a novel baseball game is to be played on the St. Mary's college grounds on Sunday afternoon between two teams from Company N, League of the Cross Cadets. The game is to be played for a dinner to be given to the near future. The rules governing the game are quite unusual. Each team is to have eight substitutes and each player that makes the third out leaves the game and a substitute takes his place. Another provision is that no pitcher shall officiate more than two times. Joe Cone and Jim Fitzsimmons are the captains of the two teams and each are confident of victory.

YANGER MAKES A SHOW OF AMATEUR CORDELL IN THREE ROUNDS.

Henry Yanger displayed a distinct reversal of tactics in his three-round bout with Jack Cordell yesterday afternoon and made a show of the amateur. He had a perfect guard and protected his head nicely and at the same time he punched Cordell all around the ring. He then took on Monte Alt and resumed his old tactics of allowing Altell to do all of the leading.

Yanger is working hard and faithfully every day and is fast rounding into form. Yesterday a number of women friends of the little Chicago fighter watched him at his work and everyone who has seen him work came away with an excellent opinion of his abilities.

On this side of the bay Eddie Hanlon is also rounding into form although he is not yet down to weight, weighing about 116 pounds, it is not worrying him in the least and he does not intend to take off with a rush. So sure is he of making the weight that his manager wants to increase the weight forfeit by $500.

Eddie has not yet decided whether he will adopt the crouch, which he used to such good effect against Young Corbett, or stand up to Yanger but it is quite likely that he will crouch a large portion of the time for Yanger is famous for body punches and Hanlon does not intend to take any chances of being knocked out.

CRICKET GAMES. ENGLISHMEN WILL CONTEST WITH THE PHILADELPHIANS.

NOTTINGHAM, June 19.—The Nottingham cricketers were all out today in the first innings of their match with the Philadelphia for 134 runs, five less than the Americans scored yesterday in their first innings.

At lunch time the Philadelphia in their second innings had scored 98 runs for one wicket down.

CABLE REVOLVER MATCH. AMERICANS WILL HAVE A NOVEL CONTEST AGAINST FRENCH MEN.

NEW YORK, June 19.—It is altogether likely that the proposed cable revolver match between the United States and France will be held June 30th, says a Herald dispatch from Paris.

The conditions already agreed upon are as follows: Fifteen competitors (amateurs only) on each side with five substitutes to shoot at targets with any make of arm, at a distance of fifty yards; and at whatever place the shooter may choose but in the presence of a delegate appointed by the National Revolver Association of America or the Union Des Societes De Tir De France.

Series of six balls are to be completed by each member. Fifteen trial shots on a target will be allowed. The general rule will be the same as governed the contest of 1900, when the Americans won by 61 points. The names of the marksmen on both sides must be made known on or before June 28th.

FOX AS A TRAINER. HE IS GIVEN A KINDLY NOTICE BY A HONOLULU PAPER.

JIMMY FOX, a well-known Oakland boy, who is now in Honolulu, is winning praise and renown there for the manner in which he is handling some of the ambitious "pugs" of that territory. Fox has discovered a surprise there in the person of Huihui, a native boxer, whom he has been training since his arrival in the Islands.

Huihui defeated Soldier Latham, a clever fighter, on June 6. In speaking of the bout the Honolulu Evening Bulletin thus comments: "A word for us to the trainer of Huihui, Jimmy Fox. There is no question that this man is one of the cleverest trainers that has set foot on the beach of Honolulu and his points showed in the fighting of Huihui Saturday night."

COLORED PUGS FITZ CONFIRMS FIGHT DRAW IN NORTH. STORY OF LOVE.

WALCOTT AND JACKSON GO THE LIMIT AT PORTLAND. CORNISHMAN SAYS HE IS LONELY AND NEEDS A GOOD WOMAN.

Joe Walcott and Young Peter Jackson fought a twenty-round draw last night at Portland before a crowd of 3000 people. The match was for the welterweight championship of the world. Although the decision was a draw it looked very much as though Jackson should have been given the decision, for he had by far the best of it at the close of the contest.

During the last three rounds Walcott was unable to land a single blow, while Jackson was punching him all over the ring and quickly putting him to the test. He was unable, however, to land a knockout blow. For the first eight rounds there was very little to the fight except Walcott. Jackson seemed indifferent and willing to take unlimited punishment, and seemed too lazy to give as much as he received. Beginning in the ninth Jackson seemed to wake up and went at his opponent hammer and tongs. This changed the aspect and Walcott was on the downward path as Jackson went up. The latter displayed great generalship and was extremely clever at inflicting.

When the men entered the ring there was a dispute as to the length of the fight. Al Herford, manager for Jackson, claimed that it was to go twenty-five rounds, but Walcott was firm in holding to the twenty-round proposition. It was fortunate for him that Herford gave in to the claim, for the fight would have been a long one. It was only by bringing all of the science at his command into play that he avoided a knockout before the twentieth round.

BAD BOY MAKES A GOOD REPORT. Judge Ellsworth this morning found that Domio Demanti, the son of the Italian bootblack, who last Friday morning was ordered to report to the judge today had improved in his conduct during the past week and he was placed in the care of his parents with the understanding that he was to report again at the end of the month.

Domio had been in the habit of running around with bad boys at night. The father was at his stand and the mother worked and Domio did as he pleased. Sometimes he went to school and sometimes he didn't. The mother finally reported his conduct to Miss Gifford, the probation officer of the Juvenile Court, and Domio was haled before the judge to see what should be done to correct his ways. He was placed in the charge of Miss Demanti, the Associated Charities for a week, reporting to her each day and the parents are now willing to take him home again.

BOWLING GAMES BIG RAIN STORM MONK IS RULED OFF TRACK. ON ALLEYS. PREVENTS. OFF TRACK.

LOCAL PLAYERS TAKE AN INTEREST IN POPULAR GAME.

At the present time bowling is one of the most popular of pastimes and the Oakland bowling alleys on Thirteenth street are crowded nightly by players, good, bad and indifferent. Many impromptu matches are played nearly every day, which lends added interest. Last Tuesday evening a match game was played between Pete Johnson and Billy Reeves of the Eagles team, which was one of the best and closest games ever seen on the alleys. Johnson rolled 233 against 201 for Reeves.

J. M. Hockett, a capitalist from Rochester, N. Y., visited the alleys this week and participated in the games. He made the scores of 333 and 210. Mr. Hockett stated that he is out of practice and attributes his high scores to the exceptionally fine condition of the alleys.

Harry Squires and a party, consisting of fifteen ladies and gentlemen, played at the alleys last evening and made quite a number of high scores. This was their second visit to the alleys this month and to their intention to have weekly meetings.

BETTING DEPENDS ON RAIN. SAVABLE WILL GO TO THE POST A STRONG FAVORITE.

CHICAGO, June 19.—The American Derby, which will be run at Washington Park track, is now in the hands of the weather man. Whether the track tomorrow is heavy or fast will matter little in the eyes of the field, but if rain falls there will be a big shift in the betting. Secretary Howard predicts a field of eighteen, but official entries will not tell the full story as to the number of starters. The Derby owners have until forty-five minutes before the race to declare their intentions.

John A. Drake, owner of Savable, the favorite, bought for a dry track. The son of Salvo is believed to be the best on a course that is lightning fast. There has been a cessation in the betting because of prediction of rain tonight. Other owners are praying for rain. The two second choices for the Derby, Claude and Judge Himes, are mud horses. Both have won some races this year on heavy tracks. If the Washington Park course is heavy they will probably go to the post at 4 to 1, with Savable the favorite by only a slight margin. The weight of money already laid will probably make Savable favorite under any conditions.

Gregor K. Ayer, manager, Fore and Art and Early have indicated that they can run on either side of a track. Flo Carline is a good filly in the mud. The horses race affected by mud are Dick Wells and The Picket.

Lawrence A. Young, president of the Washington Park Club, believes the attendance will be greater than at any horse race ever run in America and thinks that this year will see the American Derby sent ahead of the English and French derbies in the matter of a large crowd. His estimate is 75,000. The probable field and prices today showed no material change from last night.

A sure way to get rid of the blues—stand pat on a bobtail straight.—Cornell Widow.

MISS GIFFORD HAS CONFIRMED THE STORY AND WHEN BOB WAS APPROACHED ON THE SUBJECT HE SAID: "Yes, I am engaged, and to the sweetest little woman in the world. I had known two or three of the girl members of the company to which Miss Gifford belongs, and attended the show at McVicker's a number of times. I fell in love with Miss Gifford when she appeared before the footlights and later when I was introduced to her my affection was confirmed. Our progress toward the engagement was rapid."

"I suppose the public will think it is not doing honor to the memory of my wife to fall in love and become engaged so soon after her death, but I am sure if she could know she would approve of the proposed alliance between myself and Miss Gifford. I am lonely and need the affection of a good woman. We do not expect to marry for a year, or perhaps two years. Miss Gifford is making a name for herself on the stage and I will not interfere with her career."

According to present plans Fitzsimmons will leave for the coast Sunday and go to work for Jeffrie.

STARR GIVEN THREE YEARS.

Judge Ellsworth this morning sentenced J. D. Starr, the Hayward burglar, to three years at Poisson State prison. Starr was found guilty by a jury of having robbed the Gun Tree saloon at that place. The evidence went to show that the saloon had been robbed on several occasions and finally an electric burglar alarm was put in which connected with the room of the proprietor. The alarm sounded one night and summoning some assistance the building was surrounded and Starr was found inside unconscious of notice he had given to the outside world. He was arrested and tried and found guilty of burglary in the first degree. As a defense he stated that he robbed as he had been unable to support his wife and family.

CUP DEFENDERS DID NOT START IN TRIAL RACES TODAY.

GREENWICH POINT, Conn., June 19.—The scene of the yacht racing in the sound channel today is a little further eastward through the invitation of the Indian Harbor Yacht Club for a race for the cup defenders off Great Captain's Island, at the entrance to Greenwich harbor. Soon after sunrise, however, a driving northeast rain storm set in and there was every indication that it would continue throughout the day, so that there was little hope three hours before the time set for the start that the three yachts, Reliance, Constitution and Columbia would appear.

MANY CHILDREN IN THE CONCERT.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 19.—As on the opening night, the full strength of the Saengerfest participated in the afternoon concert of the thirty-first national centennial music festival today, and although the audience was for the most part composed of women, there was not a small quota of men which helped to fill the Liberal Arts building.

One of the features of the afternoon program was the chorus of 4000 children from the public schools of St. Louis who for months have been carefully trained for participation in the Saengerfest.

Tonight the closing concert of the Saengerfest will be held.

JUSTICE ATTACKED BY CHICKEN POX.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—Justice Fred S. Cone has returned from his vacation trip to Cloverdale earlier than he expected. He was taken with a severe attack of chickenpox and was obliged to come to Alameda for treatment. He is now at the residence of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Elbery, on Santa Clara avenue, under the care of Dr. L. W. Stidham.

It is expected the patient will be out in a week or two.

HID IN SALOON TO ROB TILL.

The cash register in the saloon of Frank Perella, at Fifth and Market streets, was robbed of $75 after the place was closed at midnight last night. There is no evidence that the burglar had forced his way into the saloon and the detectives who are investigating the matter believe that the thief concealed himself in the building and when the saloon was closed for the night came out of hiding and relieved the till of its contents.

BIG INCREASE IN GROSS EARNINGS.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—A statement of the earnings of the North Shore Railroad Company for May, 1903, compared with those of May, 1902, show gross earnings of $72,484 against $56,584 last year, an increase in gross earnings of $15,900 and in earnings over operating expenses of $10,350.

OAKLAND JOCKEY GETS A HARD DEAL IN THE EAST.

Jockey "Monk" Coburn was ruled out of the Harlem track in Chicago yesterday and given instructions to never again ask for permission to ride there. The reason of his expulsion was his failure to keep engagements and inability to make weight because of excessive dissipation. He is under contract with George C. Bennett at a salary of $5,000 per year.

The jockey, whose full name is William E. Coburn, began his career a number of years ago when only a child, and made a big reputation on local and Eastern tracks. He was considered to be the best rider of two-year-olds in the country and when not dissipating he was with the foremost jockeys in the land.

Simultaneous with his expulsion from the Harlem track he secured a divorce from his young wife yesterday. The divorce was granted by Judge Melvin. The couple were married about a year ago, but did not get along together. The young wife did not contest the suit and it is understood that she agreed to do this in return for provisions being made for herself and child.

NOTABLE FEATURES OF THIS WEEK'S ARGONAUT.

Among the striking contributions to the Argonaut for June 22, are Robert Louis Stevenson's Villon story, "A Lodging for a Night," published apropos of the production by Southern of McCarthy's play, "If I Were King," in which Villon figures; "By Stage Through El Dorado," a letter from Geraldine Bonner, who describes vividly a drive by night from Placerville to Jackson; "The Race-Suicide Problem," a series of extracts from Roosevelt's views; an extended review of Frank R. Stockton's last novel, with extracts from his wife's brief biography; and a criticism of Nat Goodwin in "The Altar of Friendship," by Josephine Hart Phelps.

CONVENT ALSO TO FOUGHT WITH A SALOON KEEPER REJOICE. LUNATIC. SHOT.

SACRED HEART GRADUATES IN JUBILEE OF FATHER KING.

A very interesting feature of the coming golden jubilee of Rev. Michael King, pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, will be the part which is to be taken on the occasion by the religious and graduates of the Convent of the Sacred Heart. The fifteenth anniversary of the ordination as a priest of Father King will be the 3d of next month. On the preceding day, in honor of the occasion and by way of recognizing the fact that Father King is the founder and earliest patron of the institution, the sisters of Sacred Heart Convent will hold a reunion of alumnae of the seminary attached to the convent and hope to have it attended by graduates as far back as 1855.

In the morning, there will be a solemn high mass in the chapel at 10 o'clock, at which it is expected there will be at least twenty-five priests present in the sanctuary and among them, of course, will be Father King himself. After mass, there will be a reception to friends of the honored guest and the institution, during which pleasant memories of the early days will be received. There will be a dinner for the convent and the graduates, many of whom, of course, have become busy and venerable, will meet around a table of their own and recall the days when they were merry seminary girls preparing themselves to preside over the homes, which they have since established in all parts of the Pacific coast.

Brights Disease And Diabetes

Announcement of the Discovery of the Cure.

The stockholders of the John J. Fulton Co. of San Francisco announce to the world the curability of Chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes based on hundreds of cures and two years of demonstration, disclosing about 87 per cent of recoveries. In attestation of these momentous facts, we present the names of some of the prominent business and professional men of this city, every one of whom has recovered after previous operations and to have previous opinions reversed and to be satisfied of the genuineness of the discovery before investing in this corporation, viz: Hon. Barclay Henley, Attorney at Law; Hon. J. M. Sullivan, ex-Supreme Judge of Nevada; Col. D. B. Fairbanks, Cashier Petroleum Savings Bank; R. D. Sessions, Attorney at Law; J. E. R. Co., and many others.

The list of the cured runs into hundreds and includes druggists and physicians. The 18 per cent of failure was largely among cases that were at death's door and many such recovered. The Specimens that have at last conquered these dread diseases are known as the Fulton Compounds. The Renal Compound for Bright's and Kidney Disease is $1; the Diabetes Compound is $1.50. We have established an agency in your city and you will find pamphlets and Compounds at Owl Drug Co., 13th st. and Broadway; Osgood Bros., 7th st. and Broadway; L. Tobner, 7th and Market streets.

OLD WOMAN GUARDS THE LIGHT HOUSE AT GREAT RISK.

NEW YORK, June 19. — Mrs. Nancy Rosa, the oldest lighthouse keeper in the United States, is the heroine of a combat in the historic lighthouse at Story Point on the Hudson, in which she was pitted against a lunatic. Attacked only with a poker, the woman, who is 75 years of age and has attended the light half a century, bravely stood her ground and drove back her assailant. The man who made the attack is an Italian.

He climbed into the tower, and exclaiming that the light must be torn down, started to demolish things. Mrs. Rosa seized a poker and belabored him. He stood the rain of blows a moment and then fled, locking the door as he went. The old lady sounded the siren and secured help. The Italian was locked up.

AMUSEMENTS.

IDORA PARK.

The bill at Idora Park Theater this week is one of the most entertaining of any that has ever been presented in Oakland. There was a larger crowd at the theater last night than on any previous occasion. The famous Eastern and European artists are certainly getting all the attention that they could desire.

John J. Welch is a noted dancer and musician and every night this week he has been loudly applauded, his every effort being new and original. The eminent juvenile comic soloist, Clement Baker, has called forth much praise and applause, while little Nellie Bruce and Della Rose have pleased everyone with the charm and grace of their contortion dancing. Ben Pique, who gives a ludicrous act on horizontal bars, is a clown of noted originality. Harry Sylvester, the celebrated vocalist, has a new collection of illustrated songs. He has a wonderful baritone voice, the strength and quality of which is unequalled.

The moving pictures are all new and very entertaining. Friday night will be an admission to the gallery is free, the dress circle 10 cents and the orchestra 25 cents. The balloon ascension and high dive will be given as usual every afternoon and evening, and the laughing gallery, scenic railway, coal mine, etc., are attracting the usual large crowds. Idora Park is located on Telegraph avenue and Fifty-second street. Take Telegraph avenue or Shattuck avenue cars.

EAGAN IS GUILTY.

Michael Eagan was found guilty by a jury in Judge Ellsworth's department of assault with a deadly weapon. Eagan was placed on trial with most of the witnesses in the case against him, convicted by their absence, but the jury convicted him, anyway. Eagan cut William Culler in the neck during a fight that occurred out at the new subway being constructed at Emeryville on April 13 last. When the trial of the case came on, it was found that Culler had disappeared and with him the men who saw the assault take place.

MURDERER CAUGHT AFTER BEING WOUNDED BY POLICE OFFICERS.

ATCHISON, Kan., June 19.—Nick Belrich, a German, aged 40 years, proprietor of a saloon in Eighth street, was shot and killed by Theodore McKim, McKim was mortally wounded later in an exchange of shots with the officers attracted to the scene. At the hospital McKim admitted the killing and said they fought over a game of dice.

EDWARD OLSON IS INCOMPETENT.

Edward A. Olson was yesterday declared incompetent to manage his affairs and Miss Sophie L. Olson, a sister, was appointed guardian of his person and estate. Olson was hit on the head with a hammer a few years ago and ever since that time he has acted queerly. He has a media for spending money and has been filling his home with pianos, organs and photographs. Some time ago Olson was the owner of twelve lots, several cottages and had $3,000 in the bank. Now his sister states he has squandered all his money and his property is heavily mortgaged.

Olson was formerly a popular member of the Lincoln Gun Club at Alameda and was a crack shot.

FOOTE'S ADDRESS.

SOME LOCAL VETERANS WOULD LIKE TO HAVE IT REPEATED.

A committee of ex-soldiers has sent a communication to Hon. W. V. A synopsis of Mr. Foote's speech having been printed here so appeal to the veterans that they think they should like to hear the whole address.

A CREDIT TO THE STATE.

The California Ladies' Magazine, edited and published entirely by ladies, is one of the brightest publications in the West. Its staff of writers are well-known throughout the East and West in the literary world. They spare neither labor nor expense to make it all that they have designed it should be in every department. The last issue, devoted to the Native Daughters of the Golden West, beautifully enhanced with portraits of fair women, is especially attractive.

The August number is to commemorate the National Emancipation of the Grand Army of the Republic and will be replete with golden nuggets. Mrs. Martha P. Owen, the well-known journalist, is the editor in charge of this remarkable issue, and this is a sufficient guarantee of its dainty and artistic completeness. Mrs. Owen, as a writer, has no peer in the West. From her pen drop thoughts like pearls that shine in the diadem of literary excellence. Her patriotic enthusiasm will no doubt express itself to a gem of printed beauty that will be graciously appreciated by the old soldiers and every Californian, who takes a pride in the State, for Mrs. Owen's reality to California is as well known as her journalistic ability.

CALIFORNIA'S RACE PROBLEM.

Race problems always result from the presence, in large numbers, of two or more non-assimilable races inhabiting the same region. The race problem produced by the presence of the Chinese was early brought to an acute phase by the hard times on this coast following the great panic of 1875. The continued depression promoted an agitation, which finally resulted in the complete exclusion of the Chinese.

Thus one race problem was solved, or rather suppressed, in its incipency, but another equally as menacing and far more insidious has grown up with the unrestricted coming of the Japanese. The little brown men are pouring into California at a rapid rate. Each year sees an increase in the number of immigrants arriving from Japan. The Japanese will soon be numerically the most important element of the population in Hawaii, and in this State they are branching out into many industries. Although times are exceptionally prosperous and wages abnormally high, a bitter opposition to them is making itself felt. Hon. Frank Sargent, the Commissioner-General of the Bureau of Immigration, who recently investigated conditions on this coast, reports a widespread feeling in favor of restricting immigration from Japan. This feeling is not confined to any class, although it is naturally more aggressive in labor circles. To sum it all up, Commissioner Sargent found the Japanese were generally considered unreliable, and that public sentiment on this coast would soon demand action on the part of Congress to prevent their coming. Commenting on this, the San Francisco Chronicle says:

"The objection which the more intelligent citizens have against the unrestricted immigration of the Japanese is, however, of a different order. It is quite plain to them that if it is to be tolerated indefinitely we shall be confronted in time with a race problem here quite as serious in its character and as difficult to solve as that which exists in the South. It must come to this, sooner or later, with any non-assimilable race entering our borders, whether they be Japanese or Chinese, and it is something which must be guarded against as earnestly and effectively as against the degrading influence of the race on white labor."

While this is a correct statement, undoubtedly, an appeal to Congress will inevitably bring sharply to the fore the race question at the South. The Japanese question on the Pacific more nearly resembles the negro question at the South than the Chinese question did. It has not the lynching and outrage features, but in some other respects it is clearly related. Unlike the Chinese, the Japanese conform to the customs as generally as do European immigrants from countries other than Germany and the British Isles. They wear our clothes, are our manners, and seek to learn our language. These things the Chinese do not seek to do. Furthermore, the Japanese are not addicted to the pernicious vice of opium smoking, preferring to take their whiskey and beer like free Americans.

Notwithstanding all this veneering, the Chinese are the more desirable as servants and laborers. In the kitchen, or the orchard a Chinaman commands higher wages and better employment than the Japanese. The fruit and hop growers are a unit in preferring Chinese to Japanese. They say the Japanese are inconsistent and unreliable, averse to continued hard labor and without respect for the obligations of a contract, being besides quarrelsome and addicted to habits not conducive to good order and efficiency as laborers.

Whatever the several objections, however, there is growing feeling in favor of restricting Japanese immigration. That the presence of the Japanese suggests a race problem is true, but when we go to Congress with our race problem we will be met with similar suggestions from the South. We do not allow the Japanese and Chinese to vote or hold office. We do not allow the latter to even come here, and now we propose to keep out the former. Quite naturally the Southern will ask, "Why do you wish us to treat the negroes in our midst differently from the way you treat the Chinese and Japanese in your midst?" But race problems are rarely consistent. They never look the same to the person at a distance than they do to the man at close range—the man in immediate touch with them. For that reason New England regarded the Chinese question in California in the same light that she viewed the negro question at the South. The only difference to her was that the negro was black and the Chinese yellow. For the rest, there was a little more sympathy for the black because he had been a slave.

What will New England say when we spring another race problem? There is a good deal of "unity of man" talk floating around, and we will see what it is worth when we ask for Japanese exclusion. The brotherhood of man is an excellent thing in theory, but it is an exceedingly difficult thing to practice under certain conditions.

A Stockton paper says the representation in Congress of the Southern States should be cut down in proportion to the voters disfranchised. Suppose we apply the rule to California. This State is apportioned a Congressman on the basis of Chinese, Japanese and Indians, who are not allowed to vote. We would lose a Congressman by endeavoring to obtain a political advantage from the disfranchisement of the negroes. The colored citizens vote the Republican ticket almost exclusively. What benefit is it to them to deprive South Carolina and Mississippi of half their representation in Congress? Is the negro voter in Ohio or New York likely to be placated by being told that the Republican party consented to the disfranchisement of colored voters in Louisiana?

The shipbuilding trust is getting the Government into trouble with the courts. At the Elizabethport yard the Sheriff has levied on the cruiser Chattanooga, to recover a bill against the contractors for boilers and at the Richmond yard a local court has enjoined the naval authorities, at the instance of a supply firm, from launching the Galveston. The Attorney-General is of the opinion that the courts have no power to interfere with warships. They should not if they have, in times of emergency the Navy Department could not wait for ships while dealers and contractors thrashed out their quarrels in the courts. It makes little difference at the present time, but the principle at issue is a most important one. Perhaps the attempted interference with the Galveston and Chattanooga is a good thing, as it affords an excellent opportunity for settling a question of considerable moment.

BRITAIN'S OUTLOOK.

The Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, did for Mr. Chamberlain what that clever gentleman, with all his astuteness, was unable to do for himself. He succeeded in committing the Premier, conditionally, at least, to Chamberlain's proposed reciprocal tariff arrangement between Great Britain and the colonies. As this has occurred since the passage of the budget, it puts the nose of the free traders in the cabinet out of joint, and forces a general discussion of the tariff question in the hustings during the next campaign.

On this side of the water we are prone to consider the situation of Great Britain as analogous to our own. Very nearly the positions are reversed. England is densely populated. It is a manufacturing country compelled to import the bulk of both its food stuffs and raw materials. All the oils, cotton, timber, and more than half the iron or steel used in England are imported from abroad. England and her colonies furnish more than half the wool supply of the world. England still supplies herself with coal, but the limit of production has been reached.

Mr. Chamberlain puts a spur to British competitiveness by speaking of his proposed measure as "tariff retaliation." The phrase is convenient, but it will not answer as a description of an economic policy. Stripped of all circumlocution, Mr. Chamberlain proposes to establish free trade relations between Great Britain and her colonies with an elastic protective tariff against the outside world. His object is to cement the empire and prevent it falling apart, as it threatens to do, because of the growing commercial weakness, in a comparative sense, of the mother country. It is based on the idea that the commercial and manufacturing supremacy, so long enjoyed by Great Britain can be maintained, if it cannot be maintained, then Mr. Chamberlain's policy, if adopted, must fail. If it prove abortive, the increased pressure on wages and subsistence in the British Isles will be something like a national calamity.

Looking at the situation dispassionately, England seems threatened by conditions which can not be produced or averted by tariffs. The English have burned their candle and fattened on their opportunity. Their iron and coal are going out, and they are met everywhere with the keenest competition in foreign markets. If they are reduced to the necessity of protecting their home markets their cause is hopeless.

The better way to advertise California is to advertise California products and then make sure the goods are up to the representations.

The Emperor of Austria recognized Peter Karageorgievitch, King of Serbia and extended his best wishes, but took occasion to denounce the murderers of Alexander and his queen. Condemning assassins while congratulating its beneficiary is not at all consistent, but when its diplomacy ever observe consistency? The Austrian Kaiser understands that the murder of Alexander was only a part of the plot to place

CRANE TOWN IN INDIANA. In a large grove of elm and sycamore trees at the head of English lake in Stark county thousands of blue cranes have for years made their nests and reared their young. There is much clamor and contention among the birds in choosing nesting places and they give little attention to people who come into the woods. They build their nests after the manner of a stork, sitting astride of them with their legs hanging down.

The cranes seem to have a rule of action and a code of signals. Only about one-fourth of the birds are away from the woods at a time, those remaining in the trees keeping close watch for hawks, crows and eagles. The approach of any of these enemies is announced by a "hawk" which causes the entire flock of cranes to sail forth in an attack. Although awkward and slow to flight, if they once surround an enemy they will make short work of him.—Indianapolis News.

BRUTAL WORK OF THUGS.

MOTHER AND CHILDREN ARE BEATEN IN HORRIBLE MANNER.

ST. LOUIS, June 19.—Living unoppressed and with gaping wounds in their heads, Mrs. Sam Bailey and her son, Gus, and daughter, Eliza, were found early today along the tracks of the Big Four Railroad, near East Alton, Ill. Apparently an attempt to murder them had been made and it is believed they cannot recover.

The assailant or reason for the probable murders is not known. The victims are in very humble circumstances, having been driven from their home in the river bottoms, near East Alton, by the flood.

REMEMBERED VALLEY FORGE.
PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—The 125th anniversary of the evacuation of Valley Forge by the Continental Army was commemorated today by a patriotic celebration, in which hundreds participated under the auspices of the Valley Forge Anniversary Association. The former portion of the exercises began at 10 o'clock with Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia presiding. Bishop Cyrus D. Ross of the Methodist Church offered the invocation and the Rev. J. W. Sayres conducted a responsive reading. Apparently an attempt to murder them had been made and it is believed they cannot recover.

BOSTON TO NEW YORK ON TROLLEY.

N. W. HAVEN, Conn., June 19.—An order just handed down by the Superior Court has made it possible for the final link to be completed in a chain of connecting trolley lines between New York and Boston, a half mile at Westport, Conn., along excepted Work on the new line, permission to construct which has been secured, will be started at once.

LIGHTS TO TRAP UNWARY PESTS.

BERKELEY, June 19.—The latest move in the campaign against the codlin moth which is being pursued by the entomologists of the University in the Fajaro Valley is to set lantern traps in the orchards. The pest attracted by the light fly against it and are killed. The device is an old one, though it has never before been used in this connection.

ALFRED HOYT DEAD.
NEW YORK, June 19.—Alfred Miller Hoyt, one of the thirty-two survivors of the original members of the Union League, is dead from heart trouble. He was prominently interested in many large financial institutions.

CZAR ACCEPTS A GIFT

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—The Czar, the Novoye Vremya announces, has accepted a copy of a book on Bessarabia, written by M. Kroushavan, the editor of the anti-semitic organ in Kishinev, the Besarabets in the articles in which are held to be largely responsible for the massacre of the Jews at Kishinev, and it is added has commanded that the author be thanked in the name of His Majesty.

It was announced from St. Petersburg June 7 that M. Kroushavan was attacked by a party of Jews in a street at St. Petersburg that day and was stabbed in the neck by a former student of the Polytechnical School. The dispatch added the wound was not believed to be mortal.

LAST OF A SERIES OF LUNCHEONS BY OAKLAND CLUB.

The last of the series of nove luncheons which the Oakland Club has been giving took place Wednesday at the clubrooms on Seventeenth street. It was a "vegetarian" meal and was superintended by E. G. Fulton, manager of all the sanitarium cafes on the coast. The menu was a most elaborate one, consisting entirely of dishes made from fruits, nuts and cereals, and the ladies were delighted with the unusual treat. Six society girls in white served the guests and the tables were brilliantly decorated with scarlet geraniums. The young ladies who served were Estelle Lundy, Miss Lou Jendish, Bertha Grandjean, Ruth Moran, Marion Horton and Esther Stevens. Mrs. Winfield S. Peters was chairman of the day. Among the guests were: Mrs. John Bakewell, Mrs. W. M. Beckwith, Mrs. E. Barchies, Mrs. C. S. Charbonnet, Mrs. H. Crowell, Miss Lou Jendish, Mrs. Joshua Dunbar, Mrs. C. E. Foy, Mrs. G. E. Grant, Mrs. J. P. Garlick, Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Humphreys, Mrs. Frank Havens, Miss E. Hustin, Mrs. W. N. Kleeman, Mrs. Irving Lew, Miss M. Keene, Mrs. J. L. Milton, Mrs. Henry Melvin, Mrs. J. M. Merrill, Mrs. A. G. McDonald, Mrs. E. Miller, Mrs. A. G. Nye, Mrs. A. W. Palmer, Mrs. W. S. Peters, Mrs. Scherman, Mrs. David Spencer, Dr. Van Kluk, Mrs. Vooley, Mrs. Lloyd Baldwin and Mrs. E. Brown.

HOME WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Estelle Lundy and Edward Colville Price of Pasadena was solemnized last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. Lundy, in East Oakland. The pretty ceremony was witnessed by about fifty guests, who were of course the bride and groom, the bride's mother and father, and relatives of the bride and groom.

The ceremony took place in the long parlor, where the large square window had been converted into a dainty bower of ferns and gypsophylla. The bride was attired in a clinging white gown of tulle and lace, the transparent veil of the bride being outlined with a bertha of rare Irish lace. The veil, which had been worn by the bride's mother on her own wedding day, was of Irish lace and was held in place with orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was of white roses and the only ornament worn was the groom's gift, an exquisite brooch formed of two interlacing circles of pearls and diamonds.

Miss Mary Jackson, in a pretty white etamine, and carrying pink roses, was the maid of honor, and Clyde Caward, cousin of the bride, was the best man. Mr. Crawford came from New York to attend his cousin on this occasion.

An uncle of the bride, Rev. J. Wilson Lundy of Stockton, read the marriage service and the wedding march was played by Miss Estelle Grandjean. The wedding was the culmination of a romance begun when the newly married couple were children and neighbors. The groom's father is W. Clay Price, the well-known capitalist, who has made his home in Pasadena since his residence on Highland Park burned some years ago.

The bride is a cultured girl and a brilliant conversationalist. She is a graduate of the Oakland High School and of the University of California. She is a daughter of the late David Lundy, who was prominent in San Francisco business circles.

After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Price will reside near Santa Barbara, where the groom has fitted up his large country home elegantly for his bride.

THEY WERE MARRIED.

The home of W. S. Weyant, 1333 Alcaraz avenue, was the scene of a happy last evening. Cecil Weyant and Alphonse M. Colson were united in marriage, the Rev. J. P. Curran of the Golden Gate Baptist Church officiating. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Weyant, Mr. Weyant representing one of the leading grocery firms of South Berkeley. The groom is a partner in the San Francisco clothing store of Mr. and Mrs. Weyant. After the ceremony a supper was served. The young couple will be at home after July 1 at 2923 Otis street.

THEY WILL MARRY.

The engagement is announced of Mrs. M. J. Case and J. W. Bassford, both of this city. The bride to be is an Oakland girl, being a daughter of Perry Johnson, who was City Marshal here for years. She is an accomplished pianist and is fortunate in possessing a pleasant appearance and a charming manner. Mr. Bassford holds a responsible position with the Crane Ice Company in San Francisco and has been with that firm a long time. He is fitting up a beautiful little home in East Oakland on the boulevard, to which he will bring his bride some time in August.

WERE QUIETLY MARRIED.

Miss Jessie Taylor and Harry O. Tenney were quietly married Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian Church of Alameda, Rev. Dr. Frank S. Bruhn officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by a few intimate friends and relatives only. The engagement was known to intimate friends it had not been formally announced and the news of the marriage was a surprise.

A SHOCK

Must Be Avoided If Possible. Shock to the mind brings on most disastrous conditions to body and nerves. Then it is that food, powerful food can beat show its power. As an illustration a woman of Covington, O., says "One day my husband while about the house dropped dead without a moan or groan into the room I found him lifeless. The shock and the terrible anguish that followed were so great that in a week's time I had lost apparently all my flesh and the skin became shriveled; I was so weak that I reeled and staggered about with no strength or will power to do anything. "As time wore on I recovered; just a little but not enough to make life worth the living. One day I read about a poor, skinny baby being restored to flesh and health on the food Grape-Nuts so I resolved to try it. I gained from the first box of Grape-Nuts and still more from the second and after using the third package and energy enough to go to house cleaning; something I had never expected to be able to do again. "The improvement continued steadily and I am still gaining flesh and strength." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

A lady famous for her dairy designs explaining that she learned to from the little recipe book she found in the package of Grape-Nuts.

JURY DID NOT AGREE AT JACKSON.

ONE JUROR WOULD FIND A VERDICT OF ACQUITTAL.

JACKSON, Ky., June 19.—At 8 o'clock the jury filed into the court room and Foreman Richard Millard said:

"Your honor, we find there is no chance of coming to an agreement."

Judge Redwine said: "I will have to keep you gentlemen until tonight unless you got a verdict sooner. There is no reason why a verdict should not be reached in this case."

Foreman Millard said "One man has as much right to his opinion as another and he may stick to it."

It was believed that from this there was only one man between a verdict of guilty or not guilty and it was conceded that only one juror was then for conviction and it was said that the question of punishment had not been considered at all. Later the jury again reported it was unable to agree and shortly after 9 o'clock it was discharged, so there will be another trial.

The dominant faction evidently expected acquittal this morning but there was at least one juror who would not so report.

Judge Redwine has decided to transfer the Jett-White case to Cynthia for the next trial.

NO STATEMENT AT PRESENT.
FRANKFORD, Ky., June 19.—Governor Peckham was asked on the report of news from Jackson what he would do, if anything, in the matter of a new trial. He said:

"I cannot at this time say what I will do. I must refuse to make any statement at this time."

It was learned here that Judge Redwine had agreed not to try the cases at Cynthia, but it is thought that the Governor will insist on some other trial judge.

WILL MAKE REPORT.
LEXINGTON, Ky., June 19.—State Inspector Eiler went to Frankfort today, returning from his investigation of the conditions at Jackson. He will make his report to the Governor today. He has the name of the man who went to Ewen and offered

Berkeley and the State University

ALL THE STUDIES THAT OAK LEAVES AS FORAGE CLEANINGS FROM MISS AMY M'KEE AND MISS A TEACHER WANTS. FOR CATTLE. DECOTO. SELBY INJURED.

Summer School Offers Courses of Importance to Educators of the State.

BERKELEY, June 19.—Teachers, more than any other class, take advantage of the work given at the summer session of the University of California and in preparing its courses for the coming school the faculty has taken pains to have presented lectures of particular value to educators. Not only will courses in the theory and practice be given, but those courses which have a bearing on scientific instruction will also be offered. So far as possible in the short term of six weeks, the University will give the best that she has to the teachers of the State.

The first course offered is that on the history of the theory of education of modern times by Professor Monroe of Columbia University. This will include a study of the educational ideas and practices from the Humanistic Renaissance of the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries to the present time. The object of the course is to present the growth and development of educational methods as a basis for the more detailed study of the principles of education of the present time. In conjunction with this course will be given another by the same man which will be for the study of educational literature.

This course will be followed by one to be given by Professor Heaton of the regular University staff. It will be on the practice of teaching, and in his lectures Professor Heaton will be assisted by such well-known educators as Black, McClymonds, Poshay and Kirk. These men will each give three lectures of practical interest.

Besides these courses on the immediate work of teaching, others will be given in psychology, philosophy, botany in its bearing on evolution and kindred subjects. In all the opportunities offered to the teachers are better than ever before presented by the University and as has been previously pointed, an unusually large number of teachers will take advantage of them.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
BERKELEY, June 19.—An informal reception was given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Stone, of 1714 Oxford street, in honor of the return of their daughters.

Their Nutritive Value Demonstrated in Theory and Practice By Student Expert.

BERKELEY, June 19.—Oak leaves may become an important factor in cattle raising on this coast if the experiments of W. W. Mackle of the University of California are verified in actual practice.

The expert has proved conclusively that horses, cows, sheep and pigs can not only live on oak leaves, but that they can thrive on this foliage. In fact it has been the oak leaves that in many instances have kept cattle sleek in pastures evidently devoid of nutritive value. As a forage as it may seem, the average cattleman has not been aware that his stock eats the foliage of the hard tree.

Mr. Mackle's investigations have been carried on both in the field and in the laboratory. He has spent a large portion of his time during the past year in the northern counties of the State, studying the cattle and the foliage question on the large ranges. He has watched them grazing, and has seen them eating oak leaves, sometimes in preference to other vegetation. And he has brought large quantities of leaves home to subject them to a process of analysis. In the latter he has found that the oak leaves contain all that is needed to sustain life in the different kinds of live stock. Having thus proved theoretically and practically the value of oak leaves as forage, the investigator has embodied the results of his studies in a bulletin which will come from the University press in a few days. It will prove of great value and interest to California stockmen. It is interesting in that the feeding of oak leaves has hitherto been practically unknown. It will be of value in that it throws into consideration of acres that have been considered of little value as pasture lands. One-half of the unoccupied land is covered with oak trees. If this land can be utilized, a benefit of great importance will accrue. Particularly valuable for forage are the lands upon which the scrub oaks grow, as the foliage is more easily reached by cattle and is better than that of the other species of the tree. Another point brought out by the investigator is that when oak trees are cut down, the smaller branches upon which the foliage are burned up. This is like burning hay as every leaf is of value for feed. The extent of the nutritive contained in the leaves may be judged from the statement that no other feed contains as much nourishment as the oak leaf, with the only exception of the alfalfa hay. And this statement is backed up by careful analysis.

WEEK IN SAUSA LITO

WERE MARRIED LAST
BERKELEY, June 19.—The wedding of Mrs. Sanderson to William Day, a retired sea captain, which occurred in Sausalito last week, has just been announced. Mrs. Day is one of the richest women in Berkeley, and lives in a fine home at Peninsula Park. The couple were married by a Justice of the Peace, and the affair has been kept very quiet. Mr. and Mrs. Day have left for a short honeymoon, and on their return will take up their residence in Peninsula Park.

LITTLE CHILD WAS NOT KIDNAPED.

Little Maud Stone, aged 7 years, who has been residing for about a year at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Fred Weingart, 719 Brush street, was abducted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stone, while on her way home from school yesterday afternoon, and taken to San Francisco.

The aunt, not knowing at this time who the abductors were, notified Chief of Police Hollings. Several hours after Mrs. Stone received a telegram from the child's mother saying that Maud was in her parents' custody.

It seems that the aunt and the maternal grandmother of the child, Mrs. A. Weingart, who reside at 612 East Twelfth street, refused to surrender the child to her mother, so the parents took her by force. The grandmother says that the Stones are unable to provide a home for the child and therefore should not have the care of her.

Stone is an expressman in San Francisco.

Automobile Backs Down a Steep Grade and the Young Ladies Jumped for Their Lives.

BERKELEY, June 19.—While attempting to ascend the steep grade back of the Hearst Amphitheater in an automobile yesterday afternoon, Miss Amy McKee and Miss Edith Selby, two prominent society leaders of Oakland, and their chauffeur, Martin Sweet, met with an accident that nearly proved fatal and which, as it was, seriously injured one of the ladies.

In an automobile belonging to Crestos Pierce of Vernon Heights the two ladies and their driver took a run out to Berkeley, leaving the car about the streets of the college town they decided to end their afternoon's outing by a visit to the new amphitheater being constructed on the hill back of the college building.

Winding along the road through the campus they approached the open-air theater from the upper drive.

Just before reaching the amphitheater there is a steep grade cut into the hill, forming a cliff. It was here that the accident happened.

While they were only half way up the incline the steam gave out, and almost before Sweet knew what had happened it stopped, and before the chauffeur could apply the brakes the vehicle began to slide. Sweet then applied the brakes with full force but they did not work properly and the auto continued down the grade. At the bottom were some trees, to strike against which meant death. On one side of the road was a cliff, equally perilous. On the other side was the bank of the hill.

Do what he could the chauffeur could not gain control of the machine. The entire accident was only a matter of seconds. As the automobile neared the cliff he turned the sharply across the road. But so quickly was the turn made that, though it was kept on the road, the machine turned completely over. Miss McKee jumped out to untangle herself from the wheels. Besides some slight bruises and the awful fright, she was unhurt. Sweet, however, was caught under the machine. He was literally run over by men from the amphitheater who came to the aid of the unfortunate party as soon as they heard the woman scream. Sweet was found to be unhurt.

The workmen moved Miss Selby at once to the home of Mrs. G. Henne, 224 Col-

MANY BUILDINGS GOING UP.

THERE IS AN UNSATISFIED DEMAND FOR HOMES IN FRUITVALE.

FRUITVALE, June 19.—Fruitvale is at present experiencing quite a building boom. Numbers of structures are going up in different parts of the town.

Bruecker and Lewis, contractors, have just started a large warehouse at East Fourteenth street and the California Railway crossing. The building will be 80 by 180 feet, two stories high. It is to be of wood with a cement foundation. The contract calls for its completion by August 1. The structure will be used to store hay, grain, feed and lumber. The owner, B. Blackburn, has an establishment across the street on which the lease has expired. The lot is also so small that a needed enlargement cannot be made, so Mr. Blackburn has been obliged to build.

Bruecker and Lewis are also engaged in building a fine summer residence on Fruitvale avenue and East Twenty-seventh street for E. S. Oliver, of San Francisco. The structure will be a very handsome one and will cost in the neighborhood of $5000.

A number of cottages are also going up on the latter tract near Fourteenth and High streets, and in several other sections of the district. There is an unsatisfied demand for houses here, which the real estate men and builders are endeavoring to fill, but the task is a difficult one for houses are rented or sold almost before they are completed.

HAYWARDS TRUSTEES DECIDE TO EXPERIMENT WITH CRUDE PETROLEUM.

HAYWARDS, June 19.—The Board of Trustees held their usual meeting Wednesday evening, but accomplished very little business. Town Engineer Thompson was ill, so could not make his report on the cutting down of A street fill. The matter was laid over until the next meeting.

There was considerable discussion as to the advisability of oiling the city's streets. Chairman Charles Hyer and a majority of the trustees were in favor of trying the plan. The board finally decided to refer the matter to the Streets and Building Committee with power to act. The committee will begin their experiments with Cemetery avenue, and if the venture proves successful, more of the back streets will be oiled. The main thoroughfares are sprinkled daily, so they will not need oiling.

The Trustees of the Laurel School district have called an election to be held on Friday evening, June 26, at 8 o'clock in Villa hall. The taxpayers will be asked to decide whether they wish to purchase an addition to the school property. The present grounds measure 400 by 300 feet. It is desired to buy a piece of land adjoining this, 100 by 200 feet, upon which will be moved the present school building, then the new $30,000 structure will be erected on the old site. The trustees wish to retain the old school and need the extra space for its occupancy.

SIDEWALKS AND GUTTERS IN GOLDEN GATE ARE FREED FROM WEEDS.

GOLDEN GATE, June 19.—There is a noticeable improvement in the appearance of the streets and sidewalks in Golden Gate owing to the cleaning that has been done. During the last two weeks the majority of the property owners have had the sidewalks and gutters fronting on their property freed from weeds and accumulated rubbish, making them look clean and neat.

The cup and saucer tea given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Golden Gate Presbyterian church took place Tuesday at the church annex and was a decided success. ASSAULT CASE IS POSTPONED.

HEAVY FEED WIRES PUT UP AT EMERYVILLE SUBWAY.—BUILDINGS NEARLY DONE.

EMERYVILLE, June 19.—The examination of Richard Hughes, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, came up before Justice Coburn yesterday and was postponed until June 27, at 10 a. m., as the defense produced a certificate signed by a reputable physician to the effect that Hughes is unable to appear in court. The certificate was satisfactory to all concerned and with the consent of the district attorney, who was present to prosecute the case, it was postponed. Hughes is confined to his home by blood poisoning.

FEED WIRES.
Two lines of heavy feed wires have been put up from the new power house at the subway up to San Pablo avenue. These wires are an inch and a quarter in diameter and will carry the current for all of the lines. Along with the wires are also put up by the arms of the poles, and are so placed so that they will not interfere with the trolley wires for the tracks running down to the long wharf.

DEPOT NEARLY DONE.
The two new buildings for the Cak and Transit Company which have been in the course of construction for some time past, the power house and the depot, are now nearly completed and the workmen are putting on the finishing touches. The depot, at the end of the long pier, is a large frame structure and is practically ready for use. In a very few days it will be ready for the painters. The roof building on the power house is about completed and the work is now limited to the interior and the big smoke stack.

INSTALLING MACHINERY.
As each portion of the power house is finished and made ready for its reception, the machinery is being installed in place. It has been stored in an adjoining shed since last winter.

Frank Rosa, accompanied by his wife, has come to San Pablo for a few days, where he will visit his parents.

STREET WORK IS DONE.

MANY ARC LIGHTS ARE BEING INSTALLED IN TOWN OF SAN LEANDRO.

SAN LEANDRO, June 19.—The work of street improving is about finished until next winter, as the trustees have almost decided that there is not enough money in the town treasury to do any more just at present. Heppburn street has been macadamized from Hayward avenue south for five blocks. It is now the finest thoroughfare in town. Saunders street has been repaved and put in good shape this spring, a new 7-ton road roller purchased, and other minor work done. The town fathers believe that they have now spent as much money as can be afforded this year in the street department.

WORK OF THE CITY COUNCIL COMMITTEES

BOXING BOUTS IN ABEYANCE.

COUNCIL COMMITTEE DEFERS ACTION ON A LATEST AMENDMENT.

At the meeting of the Ordinance and Judiciary Committee of the Council last night the ordinance relating to the holding of boxing matches was laid over after a short comparison of its features with a proposed amendment which was submitted. The amendment was offered to the substitute ordinance introduced some time ago and provides that a license for boxing may be issued to a club which has been in existence a year and has maintained rooms here during that time, with the proviso that the boxing take place in the rooms of the organization. The only difference between the amendment and the substitute is that the latter does not require the club to have occupied any particular rooms during the year referred to.

The petition of the Master Builders' Association for the appointment of a Building Inspector was laid over.

The ordinance establishing the width of East Twenty-first street between Thirteenth and Seventeenth avenues, was recommended.

The ordinance changing the width of sidewalks on Fourteenth avenue, between East Twelfth and Twenty-second streets, was recommended.

The array of speakers secured includes the strongest talent in this country and will call forth large audiences. For such names as the Hon. J. P. Champ Clark, United States Representative from Missouri, names which are household words in every section of this country. The program of music will also be a leading feature of the assembly and will be in charge of Harry H. Barnhart of San Francisco. Among the participants are the Knickerbocker Male Quartet, the Colonial Ladies' Quartet and many others. The mysterious Germalie, who has no superior as sleight-of-hand artist and deejonist, is another attraction. Thomas E. Trueblood, professor of elocution and oratory of the University of Michigan, and Mrs. Thomas E. Trueblood are also on the program.

The Southern Pacific Railroad Company allows a two-third round trip rate, and judging from the reports sent to the committee up to this time, the largest audience that has ever assembled at Pacific Grove will enjoy the session.

WANTS TRACKS ON TALCOTT AV.

TRANSIT COMPANY TO BID FOR FRANCHISE ON SHORT PIECE OF ROAD.

The Street Railway Committee, with Councilman Alden presiding, and members Cuveller, Pendleton, Wallace and Baccus present, considered the application of the Oakland Transit Consolidated for a franchise on Talcott avenue and across Twenty-third avenue to the tracks of the Oakland Transit Consolidated already laid there. The committee recommended that the Council ask for bids on the franchise.

Samuel Taylor, secretary of the railway, Attorney E. W. Engle and Citizen A. Goodrich addressed the committee briefly with a view to elucidating the conditions in the proposed franchise. The road at the present time, over which the proposed tracks are to run, is in a bad condition and the property owners had suggested that, in case the railway got its franchise, railway and property owners could work together in bearing the expense of the grading of the street.

Taylor stated that he would recommend to the directors of the road that it reimburse the property owners for the grading and rock, which would have to be torn up in the laying of the tracks. Attorney Engle stated that the law in the matter would prevent any open agreement to be entered into in the matter. Such a course as Mr. Taylor had suggested, however, might cover the point.

The resolution adopted requires that the company, which secures the franchise, shall proceed with the work of laying the tracks in question immediately.

OPPOSITION MADE TO SALOONS.

RESIDENTS WANT DRINKING PLACES KEPT OUT OF THE HOME DISTRICTS.

The Municipal License Committee of the Council met with Councilman McAdam in the chair and Councilmen Meese, and Fitzgerald present.

The petition of C. Lang at Twenty-third avenue to be allowed to withdraw his application for a liquor license was laid over.

Saloon licenses were recommended granted following: Oscar Rogers, 482 Seventh street; L. Mouny, 203 San Pablo avenue; E. R. Fischer, 323 Twelfth street; McMillan & Cox, southwest corner Seventh and Market; Germania Hall Association, 834 Webster street; J. P. Ponck, 421 Fourteenth street; Frank Smith, 1710 Seventh street; Frank John, 708 1/2 Fifth street; G. Caswell and A. J. Lloyd, 619 Broadway; R. Damon, 1851 New Broadway; Morda Park Amusement Company, Fifty-sixth and Telegraph avenues; and Florida, Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh, Telegraph and Shattuck avenues.

MRS. CHRISTENSEN'S PLEA.

The following communication was received from Mrs. N. W. Christensen: "I desire to withdraw my application for a liquor license at No. 5501 San Pablo avenue in this city as I desire to have my father put in another application for this place. I deem this advisable as I think a person of more mature age and judgment would be better off here. Hoping that you will grant this favor, your petitioner will ever pray."

Mrs. Christensen's petition was recommended.

MULVEHILL ATTACKED.

The following protest was received against granting a saloon license to Patrick Mulvehill at 5508 Telegraph avenue:

"We, the undersigned, each residing within one block from No. 5508 Telegraph avenue in the city of Oakland do most emphatically protest against the establishment of a saloon in that place for selling liquor by Patrick Mulvehill at 5508 Telegraph avenue or elsewhere in that immediate vicinity."

The protest was signed as follows: R. C. Dozier, 5303 Telegraph avenue; Mrs. N. W. Gaillet, 5401 Telegraph avenue; J. M. Niro, 454 Fifth street; C. E. Hendrickson, 505 Fifth street; A. Riles, 5390 Telegraph avenue; Ben Philkell, 551 Fifth street; J. F. Morris, 555 Fifth street; Mrs. Mary H. Peralta, 551 Fifth street; W. M. Converse, 5492 Fifth street.

In answer to the request as to whether any of the protestants were present, W. Converse of Fifty-fifth street stated that he objected to the granting of the license. There was another saloon in the neighborhood and he thought that place was sufficient to supply the demand.

Upon question, Converse acknowledged that he was opposed to saloons generally.

OPPOSED BLEDSO AND ROZZI.

A protest was filed against granting a saloon license to J. D. Bledso and Mario Rozzi at 1157 Fourteenth street. It was signed by Charles Miller and a number of others.

Charles Miller said that his home was within six inches of the saloon. He had signed the application for a widow who had been newly bereft but he said that he did so because she had five children to support but he opposed the running of the place by others. The majority of the protestants were land owners and among those who signed the application for the license there was but one property owner. There were two other saloons in the block.

Mrs. Miller, wife of the former protestant endorsed what her husband had said. She stated further that there were four saloons very close in that neighborhood.

Miller in answer to a question by Mr. Meese said he was not opposed to saloons in general but he did not want them so close in that neighborhood. It was a residence section. There were no saloons on Jackson street. There was no reason why saloons should be so thick in his neighborhood. The people there loved their homes as well as any other persons and should be protected.

The matter was laid over.

GRADUATION AT POLYTECHNIC.

Before a large gathering of friends of the Polytechnic High School the class of June, '03, received their diplomas last night. The program of the evening was as follows: Instrumental trio, Mr. E. H. Coffey, Mrs. Coffey and Will Coffey; essay, "National Songs," Miss Vera Smith; vocal solo, "Anchored," Harry Perry; essay, "Oakland a Sub-Port," William A. Stuart; instrumental trio, Mr. E. H. Coffey, Mrs. Coffey and Will Coffey; address, Judge F. B. Ogden; presentation of diplomas, Mr. George E. Randolph, president of the Board of Education.

In addressing the students of the graduating class, Mr. Randolph said: "The purpose for which the State offers you this education is that a high standard of civilization may be obtained, and especially do I wish to commend the girls for taking up domestic science and the persistent labor which they have put forth in mastering it. I can assure them that if the hand that rocks the cradle is not needed in promoting the progress of our country, the one who has reared the cradle and boss the cook is."

Mr. Randolph then urged the boys not to eschew politics, but to do clean politics, to make right public opinion, and always be ready to do the right fearlessly.

"As our country furnishes such education," he said, "we need not fear the telegraph spreading wholesale assassination or religious persecution or a revolution by the murder of the king and his few loyal supporters. Then he bade the graduates good cheer and closed by saying: "In all things do your best, be square with your fellow citizens and to use a slang expression 'saw wood.'"

At the close of the evening a bust of William McKinley was presented to the Polytechnic High School by the class.

Supreme Court Gives An Important Decision in Favor of Tribune Publishing Co.

The following decision rendered by the Supreme Court sets at rest an important issue between newspaper carriers and the publishers of the newspapers.

SUPREME COURT HANDS DOWN
In the Supreme Court of the State of California. (Filed June 15, 1903.)
Department One.

The Stewart Law and Collection Co. (Inc.), Plaintiff and Respondent, vs. F. Krambs, Defendant and Appellant, S. F. No. 2811.
This is an action by the assignee of the Tribune Publishing Company, a corporation, to recover the sum of $1,482.18, a balance alleged to be due on account of newspapers furnished the defendant by said company. Defendant, by his answer, denied the allegation of indebtedness, alleged a monthly settlement of his accounts with plaintiff's assignor, and also alleged an indebtedness on the part of said assignor in his favor for papers delivered to carriers, for expenses of delivering papers in an outlying district, and for papers delivered to dead-head subscribers. Plaintiff had judgment for $977.68. Defendant appeals from the judgment and from an order denying his motion for a new trial.

THE AGREEMENT.
Defendant is the successor in interest of one Taylor who on September 6, 1890, entered into an agreement with Wm. E. Dargie, then the owner and proprietor of the routes of the Oakland Daily Evening Tribune, a newspaper printed and published in the city of Oakland, whereby said Dargie sold and conveyed to Taylor the route for said paper, with the exclusive right to distribute the same within a certain designated territory. The consideration therefor was a certain sum for each bona fide subscriber within such district. The agreement contained the following provision, viz: "And the said Dargie further agrees that he will furnish to said Taylor all of the said newspapers that he will require at and for the price to be agreed upon by them." Taylor agreed to pay for all papers monthly, the price to be agreed upon, and to deliver said papers to the regular subscribers thereof to the satisfaction of Dargie. It was proved that the contract should bind the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of the respective parties. In 1894 defendant had succeeded to the interest of Taylor in said agreement, as to a portion of the territory embraced thereby, and it was stipulated that on November 1, 1893, the accounts between him and the Tribune Publishing Company balanced. At that time the price of the paper to the subscribers was fifty cents per month, and the price paid by defendant was one cent for each paper, or twenty-six cents per month for each subscriber, the average monthly issues of the paper being twenty-six. It does not appear how the rate of one cent per copy was fixed. These prices continued to October 8, 1898.

PRICE OF PAPERS.
On October 8, 1898, plaintiff's assignor notified defendant in writing that from and after that date, the price of the papers to subscribers would be thirty-five cents per month, and the price to him would be twenty-three cents per month, which would reduce defendant's profit on each subscriber from twenty-four cents to twelve cents. The defendant objected to any reduction in his profit, but continued to receive the papers and deliver them as before the attempted change in price. He, however, refused to pay for the papers any sum in excess of that which would still leave him his profit of twenty-four cents per month for each subscriber. It was found that on October 8, 1898, to the commencement of this action, there were delivered to defendant 80,-

701 copies of the paper, and the first motion presented by this appeal is as to the price plaintiff's assignor was entitled to receive therefor, the price fixed in the notice of October 8, 1898, or such a price as would still leave defendant the profit he had been receiving previously. The trial court found that such papers were delivered under the contract "as modified by the consent of the parties thereto, at the price of twenty-three twenty-sixths of one cent per copy."

The finding that the contract was "modified by consent of the parties thereto" is attacked as being unsupported by the evidence, but there is no specification of insufficiency of evidence to sustain the finding that said papers were sold and delivered at the price of twenty-three twenty-sixths of one cent per copy.

WHAT DEFENDANT CLAIMED.
The position of defendant seems to be that by his contract, he acquired the right for all time to receive a list of twenty-four cents per month on each subscriber, and that so long as the price to each subscriber was not reduced below twenty-four cents, he would continue to receive the papers, and retain that amount that the contract was in effect one for services on his part, and his compensation was to be twenty-four cents per month for subscribers.

The agreement cannot be so construed. The original contract did not fix either the rate to be charged subscribers, or the amount that the owner of the route was to pay for the papers furnished him. Nor did it specify that the route owner was to receive any designated profit on the papers handled by him, which it would necessarily have done had the intention of the parties been as contended by defendant.

It appears to have been recognized by the parties that these were matters that could not well be fixed permanently by these contracts for the reason that changes in the conditions might necessitate changes both in the subscription rate and in the price to be paid by the route owner. Therefore, no provision of this kind was inserted, and the matter was left open.

It appears that in some way, undisclosed by the evidence, the minds of the parties subsequently met upon the rate of one cent per copy, for that was the price charged and paid for several years. That fact, however, did not establish a rate binding for all time. If it had been the intention that the rate first fixed should be permanent, it would naturally have been specified in the contract, and the only apparent reason that it was not specified was that it was to be binding for all time.

It is true that Dargie agreed that he would furnish all the papers that he might be required "at" and for the price to be agreed by him, but, considering the nature of this contract, and all the provisions thereof, this meant no more than that the rates to be charged from time to time should be satisfactory to both parties. And that he would furnish all papers that the route owner might be required to furnish at such rates. There is nothing in the agreement that required Dargie to continue to furnish papers at a rate that was not acceptable to him.

Under this contract, the parties could not agree as to the price to be paid for the papers, the agreement was practically at an end. So long as the route owners paid a price that was satisfactory to Dargie, and his assignor, the Tribune Publishing Company, and perform the other terms of his contract, and the contract remained unrevoked, he was entitled to the privileges granted by the contract, and the agreement has no other effect.

When he continued to receive the papers in the face of the motion that the price to be paid him was twenty-sixths of one cent per copy, he must be held to have consented to that rate and, to have become liable therefor.

THE DEAD-HEADS.
2. Between the first day of December, 1893, and the commencement of this action, defendant, acting under the instructions of the Tribune Publishing Company, delivered a large number of papers to various persons. These papers were known and designated by and between the parties as "dead-heads." At first such papers were not charged against defendant's bill, but, at the commencement of this action, the papers so furnished him for such delivery were charged against him with the other papers furnished, and the court allowed him as credit on account thereof, the price charged him for the papers, adopting the theory of plaintiff that the defendant was not entitled to any profit thereon.

Defendant's contention was that he was entitled to collect the regular subscription rate from the Tribune Publishing Company. It does not appear in the record what was the object of the free delivery, but it is a matter of common knowledge that proprietors of newspapers frequently adopt this method of making their papers known and taken by the public, and that the design is to advance the interests of both the papers and the route owners. The agreement between the parties is entirely silent as to this matter. It is hardly reasonable to suppose that either party intended to do so.

CLAIMED AN OFFSET.
3. The defendant claimed an offset of $138, for expenses incurred in delivering papers in an outlying district. While this was a part of defendant's route, and defendant was therefore obliged to deliver papers therein, it was entirely competent for the parties to make a special arrangement as to prices in regard thereto. According to the testimony there was, for some time, only thirteen subscribers in the district, and the testimony of defendant that there was an arrangement between him and the Tribune Publishing Company, under which the Company was to reimburse him to the extent of one-half the amount paid to him for a Piedmont carrier, and the whole of the car fare, is uncontradicted. Such an arrangement would entitle him to at least $5.00 per month, as the testimony shows, and there was no attempt to dispute the claim of defendant that such arrangement continued from November 1, 1893, to December 1, 1895. The court found that defendant was entitled to only $36 for this service, but upon what theory that conclusion was reached does not appear. If defendant was entitled to anything on this item, he was, under the undisputed testimony, entitled to the full amount claimed. This finding of the court is not sustained by the evidence.

ALLEGATION NOT SUSTAINED.
4. The court further found that the allegation of the answer that defendant furnished monthly, to the Tribune Publishing Company, a correct statement of account, which was received by such company without objection of any kind and was acquiesced and assented to by it. It is not true that defendant had no evidence to support the finding that such statements were not acquiesced in and assented to by the Tribune Publishing Company. While many of the receipts in advance contained a recital that the money was received on account of a particular month, there was evidence that defendant, when making a payment, often said, "I want to pay it on some particular month, and on many occasions the recital was inserted for that reason. But the monthly statements, with the exception of two, are not in the record, and it is impossible to ascertain whether the amounts so paid on any particular month constituted the full amount due for that month.

The recital of February 8, 1895, of "January account," especially relied on, has no special significance. It is not materially different from "a month January," or "on account January." Many of the receipts were simply "advance account." There was evidence that on some occasions he asked for a receipt in full and was refused it—that on other occasions he was told that the statements would not be given until he wanted to pay it on some particular month. There was evidence that he was refused receipt purporting to be on account of any particular month. The evidence of the question of stated account may well be said to be conflicting.

NEW TRIAL ON ONE POINT.
The insufficiency of the evidence to sustain the finding of the court as to the amount due defendant on account of the Piedmont district will be the subject of a new trial. Plaintiff will consent to a modification of the judgment by reducing the same by $17.

ORDER OF REVERSAL.
It is ordered that the judgment be reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial, provided that the plaintiff, within thirty days after the going down of the remittitur, file its consent to the entry of judgment in its favor for $32.99 and $192.06 costs, no new trial shall be had, and in that event the lower court shall enter judgment accordingly.

NEWS FROM CITY OF ALAMEDA

MANY OPPOSED TO FRANCHISE TO PROTECT HOME FROM SUIT.

CITIZENS FEAR ITS GRANTING WILL KEEP OTHER RAILROADS OUT.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—The West End Improvement Association held a meeting last evening in the wigwam. President C. R. Smith occupied the chair. There was considerable discussion about the new railroad franchise. Some of the members believed that the railroad company ought to be required to give a bond that the track on West Railroad avenue would be removed before the trustees granted a new franchise. Philip Klernan did not believe that a long-time franchise ought to be given. He thought that in a few years other railroads might be desirous of entering Alameda.

"Harriman and Clark," said Mr. Klernan, "are not sleeping in the same bed any longer. The railroad companies are beginning to notice that Alameda is on the map, and there may be something doing in the way of better transportation facilities. A new road from Los Angeles is contemplating entering San Francisco through Alameda, and some electric roads are projected this way. If we grant the present company a long franchise, it will keep the new roads out."

It was decided to adopt resolutions and send them to the Board of Trustees, compelling the railroad company to vacate the stations at Webster and Fifth streets, before a new franchise was granted. Some time ago the company abandoned these two depots, placing one at Sixth street in their stead. The Fourth of July subscription committee reported that $150 had already been raised for the celebration of the nation's birthday.

The Golden Gate Park Band has been engaged to furnish the music for the occasion, and a good patriotic orator will be secured. In the evening, there will be fireworks and perhaps a reception and dance at the wigwam.

The members decided to attend the Board of Trade meeting next Tuesday evening at Linderman Hall.

FIRE COMPANY DOES GOOD WORK.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—An alarm of fire from box 38 at 11:55 o'clock last night brought the department to the Argus building, at 2213 Central avenue, near Park street. A fierce fire had broken out in John S. Thompson's bicycle repair shop in the east half of the building. The stock and fixtures were almost ruined, although most of the stock had already been removed. Thompson reports his loss at over $200, with no insurance. The blaze started, it is believed, from an old telephone wire being crossed by an electric light feed wire.

The only damage to the Argus office on the west half of the block was by water. The office had just been removed and the water leaking through from above soaked the decorated ceiling and walls in a few places. The fire department did not get to the fire until it had burned for some time. The building is owned by the Argus Publishing Company, who estimate that the damage will not exceed $500, fully covered by insurance. The structure will be repaired at once.

BROWNED TRYING TO SAVE BOAT

SAD ENDING OF YOUNG LAD—COMPANION HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—In an effort to save his toy sail boat from drifting out into the estuary, Robert Clark, aged ten years, who lived with his grandfather at 1121 Pacific avenue, was drowned yesterday about 3 p.m. In his drowning struggles he came near dragging a companion, George Culbert, down with him to death.

With several companions, the two boys had been playing near the Walnut-street wharf. According to Culbert's story, they were bathing on the narrow beach. Young Clark was proudly sailing his boat, as he paddled about in the water. What happened is best told in Culbert's words:

"Robbie was afraid the little boat would sail down to the bay and be lost, so he ran after it, and then he sank. We tried to help him but the water was over our heads."

The drowning lad managed to grasp Culbert, and it was only by a desperate effort that the latter could loose himself from the arms of his companion. He made his way to the beach, where he lay for several moments exhausted. Dyingly after the tragedy, E. B. Thorning and Fred Bergstrom, who were rowing in the vicinity, made a futile attempt to recover the body by diving. They then dragged the channel with a large rake, but without success. Up to this noon, the body had not been found and boatmen express the opinion that the tide will carry the remains out into the tidal canal.

OLD BOOKS ARE BEING FUMIGATED.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—Sanitary Inspector Eugene Mallot this morning commenced fumigating the regular circulating books in the old public library in the City Hall. The volumes were spread out on the racks, the doors and windows firmly sealed so that no air could escape. Then formaldehyde was sprayed on the floor. This will evaporate and the fumes permeate the books. It will take at least 24 hours to thoroughly fumigate the books. Tomorrow the volumes will be removed to the new building.

YOUNG GIRL PASSES AWAY.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—Miss Helen Segelhorst, 18 years old, died last evening at the residence of her parents, Captain and Mrs. August Segelhorst, 2265 Buena Vista avenue. Death was the result of strangulation of the bowels. Miss Segelhorst has a sister, Amy, and a brother, Louis. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2:30 from the family residence. Rev. Mr. Witte, of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, will officiate. Interment will be in Mountain View Cemetery.

WIFE OF CARNIVAL DIRECTOR FILES DECLARATION OF HOMESTEAD.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—Mary E. Van Nostreand, wife of Frank B. Van Nostreand, has filed a declaration of homestead on the property on the north side of Taylor street, 410 feet west of Sixth street, valued at $1000.

Van Nostreand is a director of the recent Alameda carnival that was such a financial failure. As a result many suits have been commenced against the directors.

ORATOR LECTURES ON TEMPERANCE.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—Volney B. Cushing, of Bangor, Maine, delivered a temperance address before the Prohibition Alliance at the First Methodist Church last evening. Mr. Cushing is one of the foremost temperance advocates of the Atlantic coast and his lecture was a most forcible and convincing one.

YOUNG MEN AT PLEASANT BANQUET.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—The Young Men's Institute of the Catholic Church gave an enjoyable banquet at the Park Hotel Cafe last evening. The affair was tendered the winning side in a membership contest by the losers. Over 100 sat down to the tables, which were artistically decorated with flowers and evergreens. W. W. Goggin acted as toastmaster in a most capable manner. Among the many who responded to the toast were John J. Burke, William J. Hennessy, Rev. T. J. O'Connell, W. A. Dodd, Colonel J. J. Tobin, Colonel E. W. Maslin, Judge A. J. St. Sur, Edwin Foley and George W. Dennis.

REFUSED TO SWEAR TO COMPLAINTS.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—Dave McDurney and J. W. Fletcher, both residents of St. Charles street, became involved in a neighborhood row last evening. Each refused to swear to the other for disturbing the peace and Officer Drampston arrested them both and brought them to the police station. There neither one would swear to a complaint against the other, so they returned to their respective homes.

DRIVER PAYS LICENSE TAX.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—Frank Nelk, driver of a bakery wagon, was arrested by the police yesterday for violating the license ordinance. He paid the $5 tax and was released. This is the ordinance that the grocers say is unconstitutional.

SOCIETY WILL SECURE QUARTERS.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—The Enchanted Literary Society is planning to fit up new and permanent quarters in some downtown building. A sufficient sum was realized from the recent farce given by the organization at the Armory to warrant the members in such a project. The next meeting will take place on Wednesday evening, July 1st. A debate will take place on the question, "Resolved, That the policy of President Roosevelt in appointing negroes to office in the South is a menace to the best interest of the country." A Newman will take the affirmative side and R. Priest, Jr. the negative. H. M. Hansbrow will conclude the program with an address.

LITTLE GIRL DIES OF BLOOD DISEASE.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—Emma, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Elridge, died at her home this morning of blood disease. The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning from the house, 1812 Railroad avenue. Interment will take place in Mountain View Cemetery.

BICYCLE DEALERS WILL ORGANIZE.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—For the purpose of securing a uniform rate of prices and better terms from the manufacturers, the bicycle dealers of this city took steps Wednesday evening to establish a bicycle dealer's Board of Trade. With this end in view a big delegation went to Oakland to consult with the dealer's Board of Trade on Wednesday evening.

This determination on the part of the dealers is the result of keen competition among themselves, which has literally "punctured" prices on repair work.

A general meeting will be called in a few days for the purpose of perfecting their plans.

WOMAN CHARGED WITH VAGRANCY.

Lulu Hansen, charged with vagrancy and accused of being the companion of a negro, appeared in the Police Court this morning, and on the request of her counsel, her case was continued until June 22 to plead.

STOLE DIAMOND RING

EXPRESSMAN CONFESSES TO LIGHT FINGERED TRICKS—NO PROSECUTION.

ALAMEDA, June 19.—Yesterday afternoon at 8:30 Miss Cotton, of Liverpool, England, reported to the police the loss of a $100 diamond ring. She had been visiting at 1348 Post street, and was about to leave for Mission City, British Columbia, on the afternoon train. She had hired an expressman, Dwight Rue, to take her trunk to the Park street depot. Her valuable diamond ring was lying on its dressing table as she was finishing packing her trunk. When she turned to pick up her ring again it was gone. She immediately suspected Rue, and notified the police department. Rue was immediately arrested and locked up although he firmly asserts his innocence.

This morning he was put in the sweat box and persuaded to confess to stealing the ring. He had hidden it in the express barn, he said. In the company of an officer he went to the place and dug the ring out of the stable. The authorities had to release him then, as the young lady who owned the ring had departed for Canada and there was no one to make a complaint. The police were a little unwilling to let him go, as he is a bad character though only 18 years old. They believe that he could be given a term in San Quentin if there was anyone to appear against him. Rue is the same fellow who was implicated in an attempted rape upon a Japanese girl some months ago. He got off that time on a boat captain's promise to take the lad to sea.

MISS FORREST WILL MARRY.

POPULAR YOUNG LADY WILL WED CHARLES ANDERSON.

The wedding of Miss Flora Annette Forrest to Charles Edmund Anderson will be solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stevens, on Webster street, this evening.

Miss Forrest is one of Oakland's most popular young society girls and is a favorite on both sides of the bay.

Mr. Anderson is engaged in business in San Francisco. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Bessie Forrest, with her brother, Newell S. Forrest, will act as best man. Rev. J. E. Anderson, father of the groom, will perform the ceremony. Only the relatives and intimate friends of the young couple will be present at the wedding.

A BIG LINE OF ATTRACTIONS

MANY THEATRICAL COMPANIES ARE HEADED WESTWARD—GUY SMITH RETURNS

Guy C. Smith, manager of the Macdonough Theater, returned this morning from a three weeks' trip to New York. Mr. Smith went to New York on theatrical business and accomplished the purpose of his visit. He says that the theatrical business is booming all over the country, and especially in New York, that there are more Westward bound traveling shows on the road this year than ever before. Mr. Smith says that there will be a large line of splendid attractions at the Macdonough Theater next winter.

Relative to his Eastern trip he said: "In my travels in all the large Eastern cities, I found but one theater that can compare in beauty with the Macdonough Theater, and that is the new Majestic Theater, just opened last January Fifty-ninth and Broadway, New York. The great vogue in theatricals in New York and Chicago at the present time is musical comedy with elaborate scenic embellishments, large choruses and beautiful costumes. In this line the biggest show is 'The Wizard of Oz' playing at the aforesaid Majestic Theater. It opened at the theater last January and they expect to run all this season and next, after which they promise to send it Westward."

"Among the other big attractions that are coming this way soon and that are now playing in New York are 'The Prince of Plessen,' now at the Broadway Theater, 'The Sultan of Sultana,' in which our own Maudie Brierly and her husband, Frank Moulan, are creating a furor in New York; at Wallack's Theater, 'The Runaways'; at the Casino, Mabelle Gilman in 'The Mocking Bird'; at Proctor's, Lawrence D'Orsay in 'The Earl of Pawtucket'; and many others of the same variety."

CAUGHT TRYING TO STEAL HIDE.

With nearly $75 in their pockets, Fred Kuhlken, aged 18 years, John Snyder and his brother, Joseph, both in their majority, were arrested early this morning while riding in a box-car in an attempt to "beat" their way back to Missouri, where the brothers live. Kuhlken resides in East Oakland. He was booked at the City Prison as a runaway, while the remaining two were charged with swindling the payment of their railroad fare. In the Police Court this morning the brothers pleaded guilty and were sentenced to ten days each in jail, while the case of the youth will probably be turned over to the juvenile court.

ESTEE IS NOT A CANDIDATE.

THE UNITED STATES JUDGE WILL NOT RUN FOR GOVERNOR OF TERRITORY.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

HONOLULU, June 12, via San Francisco, June 19.—M. M. Estee, United States judge, who was mentioned for Governor of Hawaii in a recent interview, has made a statement to the effect that he is not a candidate and would not accept the office.

The Rev. Father Libert, pro vicar of the Hawaiian Islands, has received his appointment as Catholic Bishop of the islands. His consecration will take place in San Francisco, or possibly in Baltimore, where Cardinal Gibbons may conduct the ceremony.

An order has been received by Collector Stackpole abolishing Lahaina, Maui, as a port of entry.

Billy Woods, the pugilist, has signed to fight fifteen rounds with Joe Miller, the former Olympic Club champion, on July 11 for a purse of $1000, the winner to take $500.

ISTHMIANS WRITE ON CANAL

ONE WRITER DECLARES THAT UNITED STATES CAN BUY CONTROL.

PANAMA, June 19.—The Star and Herald has been publishing a series of articles by the most prominent Isthmians on the canal question.

Dr. Pablo Arosemena, a member of the Liberal party, wrote an article decidedly favoring the ratification of the Panama treaty and showing that every prominent Conservative and Liberal in Panama favors the ratification of the treaty.

Another writer says he sees great danger in the sovereignty of Columbia if the treaty is not ratified and declares that the United States can buy control from the French company as Great Britain did in the case of the Suez canal, and then renounce the treaty of 1846, guaranteeing the sovereignty of Columbia. The writer adds that if at the same time the European powers decide to push their claims against Columbia, the republic being unable to comply with them, a repetition of the naval demonstration against Venezuela is possible, "which is more insulting to the nation's honor than the approval of the treaty, which really makes Columbia and the United States allies."

"If," the article continues, "being free of her obligations to guarantee Colombian sovereignty, the United States decides to land forces and guarantee the world's commerce, Columbia could not prevent her so doing, which would be far more dangerous than the ratification of the treaty."

BRICKLAYERS STRIKE.

CHICAGO, June 19.—All work on the new Postoffice and the First National Bank building has been stopped by a strike of the building laborers and the entire working force on both buildings, numbering nearly 700 men, has quit in sympathy with the building laborers. Only the carpenters remain at work.

The Hod Carriers' and Building Laborers' Union called the strike because the carpenters insisted on setting and lowering centers and building and remodeling work built for the use of the bricklayers and other skilled crafts. This class of work the building trades organizations have given to the building laborers.

THE PANAMA TREATY.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Advices from Baranquilla and Cartagena show a decidedly favorable turn in the controversy over the question of ratifying the Panama canal treaty, says a dispatch from the Panama. This change is due primarily to the isthmian public spirit and to the continued publications here by prominent men of both the Conservative and Liberal parties elucidating the important points in the controversy.

MAN OF MANY NAMES FALLS IN TO THE HANDS OF POLICE.

CHICAGO, June 19.—"Prof." A. A. Arthur, a septuagenarian, who has been sought by the police of a dozen cities for nearly a score of years has been caught at Monmouth, Ill., by Chicago detectives.

Arthur has operated under many different names, and when he was arrested, papers were found in his possession indicating that he was traveling as the vice-president of a bank, a professor in an Eastern college, a tourist, a lecturer and a minister.

In his satchel was found a full banking outfit, including 500 imitation drafts on the National Park Bank of New York. The police of Chicago have been working on the case for more than a year, or ever since it was discovered that the drafts were printed in the city, where the "professor" apparently had his headquarters.

The alias, "Professor Arthur," was the name under which he made his last appearance "an eminent member of the faculty of Hamilton College," as he is reported to have represented himself. He was to have lectured last night in Hinsdale on "Egypt and the Orient."

As "J. S. C. Bliss" he is said to have posed as the vice-president of the People's National Bank of McMinville, Tenn. A quantity of drafts and stationery, duplicates of that used in the Southern bank, were found in his possession. It was while working in this guise that the prisoner is alleged to have deceived many persons in the smaller cities and even some in Chicago.

As "S. C. Bliss" he was reported as a tourist just returned from the Orient and Egypt, a lecturer, Letters of endorsement given by pastors, were found by the police.

As "the Rev. A. D. Fostham" it is said the prisoner professed to be a Methodist preacher, driven by his health to travel to the mountains of Colorado, and securing funds and entertainment by delivering lectures and "supplying" the pulpits of many churches.

Arthur's latest alleged swindle, by which he is believed to have obtained $300,000, is thus described by the police:

He would deliver a lecture, and when about to leave would produce a New York draft, sometimes $25 and sometimes $300 or more. The paper appeared regular in every way, and there was seldom difficulty in cashing it.

"J. S. C. Bliss" is wanted in Kansas, Nebraska, Indiana and Illinois.

IN FEAR OF FLOOD.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., June 19.—The people of this city are living in constant fear of being overwhelmed by the flood from the Rio Grande river, which is reported rising rapidly as a result of heavy rains north of here. For miles up the valley the country is inundated and a large number of families have been driven from their homes. Great destruction to property has been done by breaking in the dyke and the alameda aqueduct, in miles west of this city, sent down a tremendous volume of water against the eight foot aqueduct embankment a mile above the city. The water rising at the rate of a foot an hour was creeping toward the top of the embankment, when the alarm was given and several hundred citizens rushed to the aqueduct and began the work of strengthening it. They worked throughout the night.

ANOTHER COAL STRIKE.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 19.—The coal strike on Vancouver Island, in consequence of which the mines at Ladysmith and Comox have been getting out a very small amount of coal and steamers have had to bring coal from Newcastle and Japan to supply the coal market, held by the Vancouver Island collieries, is now at an end. Yesterday the striking miners petitioned Mr. Dunsmuir, head of the mining company to be allowed to return to work. Mr. Dunsmuir will meet the miners at Ladysmith today.

ENGINEERS GO TO SALT LAKE.

BIG DEMAND FOR ENGINE MEN
FROM THE PACIFIC COAST.

There has been an increased demand for competent engineers to go to the Salt Lake division and the officials in that section of the country have been sending to California for them. This is in itself a mute tribute to the efficiency of the training that the engineers get here.

An order was sent for as many engineers as they can possibly send and so far the following have been selected to go: J. H. Barnes, F. P. Anderson, W. G. Orr, George Carpenter and T. E. Gilmarin.

HOW THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC FILES ITS LETTERS AWAY.

At the last meeting of the Pacific Coast Railway Club papers were read on various systems of filing letters. In his paper W. A. Worthington said:

"The various systems for filing and handling letter correspondence may be classified under two general headings:

"1. Indexing by date, and generally by names of correspondents.

"2. Classifying letters by their subjects, which is sometimes supplemented with an index by names.

"The only advantage in the first method consists in the small labor required to dispose of the correspondence in the files, and it is often the only means possible, because of lack of sufficient clerical force to keep up a more elaborate and better correspondence file. As generally used, under this system, letters sent are consecutively copied in an impression book, which is indexed by names of correspondents, followed by some brief idea of the subject. Letters received are generally pasted consecutively by date in a gummed stub file, which is simply indexed by names of senders, followed by a brief memorandum of the subject and the page on which the letter may be found. The disadvantages of this system are many, the chief one being that it does not make possible a complete file of any one subject without looking through a large number of books and if this is not carefully done, or when the correspondence sought covers a long period of time, some letters are apt to be overlooked; and even when all are gotten together, a file on any extensive subject can not be obtained for inspection without considerable labor.

"The second method referred to comprises by far the most successful system of caring for correspondence. All things considered, this classifies the office correspondence by distinct subjects, and keeps in one place all papers on any particular subject, regardless of the name of the writer or the dates of the letters written. Such a system requires more initial labor disposing of the letters, as on each must be noted the subject number by which it is classified, this subject number being frequently placed in the index register, and the letter placed in the file where it belongs. Once there, however, it becomes part of a complete file, and when it is desired to unearth the correspondence on any particular subject, this is found by referring to only one place in the files.

"The most usual method of caring for correspondence under the system of indexing by subject is that of the Shannon file, or modification thereof. Under this system, carbon copies of copies of the letters are put at the time they are written, which carbons are filed in the same place as letters received on the same subject. The subject index register is divided according to the letters of the alphabet, each letter being frequently subdivided according to vowels following: the first letters of the classifying word when the amount of correspondence is considerable. For instance, a letter may be written or received on the subject of 'Capacity of Box Cars.' The notation in the index register book would be numbered in the upper-hand corner 'C-1,' if it was the first letter placed on file the main subject of which commenced with the letter C. All other correspondence subsequently coming in on the same subject would be similarly numbered 'C-1,' in the right-hand corner, and placed on file next the last letter received on that subject. The next subject filed away commencing with the letter C would be numbered 'C-2' and so on. When it is required to look up a file, knowing the subject sought for, it is only necessary to look for this subject in the index register book, secure the number allotted to it in the subject index, and the letter is found in the Shannon file and replaced at pleasure.

"It is frequently desired to have impression copies of original letters sent out, which can be done in the usual manner, but this is really not necessary for the completeness of the file. It is generally done, however, as it requires little extra work and it is often valuable to have an impression copy of letter sent, so as to show any alterations made, copy of autograph signature, etc.

"All letters in the file can be to a large extent checked up by keeping an auxiliary book for this purpose, indexed by names of individuals. For instance, a letter dated March 1, from John Brown, on subject of 'Significance of the word 'dynamite' would be noted in this check book under the head of 'Brown, John, letter on subject S-100 date March 1st.' This will tend to locate letters that may not easily be found under the subject index.

"If such a system of indexing is properly looked after, there should be no great difficulty in finding correspondence. Indeed, the success of any filing system depends to a very great extent on the ability of the man who has it in charge, as the best system in the world would be a failure if imperfectly looked after. The person in charge of indexing correspondence must be extremely careful to avoid placing letters under the wrong subject number, and must exercise good judgment in the selection of subjects for letters given out, so that such sections as would likely readily occur to himself or others who may wish to look up the letters at some subsequent date.

"If he possesses these qualifications, there is no reason why the subject index system should not be entirely satisfactory, rendering possible a complete file of easy access."

NOTES AND PERSONALS GATHERED ABOUT THE YARDS.

Engineer Openshaw, accompanied by his wife and son, has gone to Salt Lake.

Robert Yates, foreman of the machine shop, and J. W. Dickinson, the yard master, left today for a short camping trip to Verdi in the Truckee region.

Engine No. 3003 is in the shop for general overhauling and will be turned into an oil burner. She will be in the shop for a month.

Niles Searies Jr., superintendent of oil equipment, has returned from a short trip to Los Angeles in connection with his department.

Engine 1903 of the Seventh street local is in the shop for a new axle and new boiler. She will be thoroughly overhauled at the same time.

H. Englebright, W. S. Palmer and W. H. Russell are out on their periodical tour of inspection over this division.

Work on the addition to the machine shop has been stopped temporarily, and the carpenters are transferred to the construction of the picket fence around the yard.

CHARGES AGAINST POLICE.

NEW YORK, June 19.—In a speech before the Order of Acaons, General Francis V. Greene, Commissioner of Police, has intimated broadly that attempts are being made in the Police Department to re-establish the machinery of blackmail which he attacked when he remanded the wardens to patrol duty last January. He added that he hoped to thwart the plan by preventing the formation of a new chain of connections.

"I want to say from my experience," he said, "that the average policeman is not crooked. He has more temptations thrown in his way than any man in any other walk of life. He can make a month's salary in a minute by simply turning his head. The great majority of the force resist this temptation and do their duty."

"Organized blackmail has been broken in two, and it has not been put together again yet, though efforts may be making in that direction. I think they can be defeated by preventing the re-establishment of the chain of connections."

WARSHIP ATTACHED.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The cruiser Chattanooga, which is nearing completion at the Elizabethport, N. J., yards of the Crescent Shipbuilding Company, is in the possession of Sheriff Corbett of Union county, N. J., who has more temptations than any man in any other walk of life. He can make a month's salary in a minute by simply turning his head. The great majority of the force resist this temptation and do their duty."

The manager of the yard claims that the levy grows out of a misunderstanding.

A NEW COMPANY.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 19.—The Northwestern Exploration Company, with principal office in Manhattan, has been incorporated here with $100,000 capital. J. Campbell Cory of Helena, Mont., is one of the directors.

WEDDINGS KEPT HIM BUSY. IS CHARGED WITH FRAUD.

TWO NUPTIAL KNOTS TIED BY
BERKELEY PASTOR
YESTERDAY.

BERKELEY, June 19.—Two weddings in the same afternoon kept the Rev. William H. Scudder busy yesterday. The contracting parties in both cases were members of the Park Congregational Church, of which Mr. Scudder is pastor. No sooner had the reverend gentleman tied one knot than he hastened to the scene of the second happy event, and when the day's work was done he felt that he had not labored in vain.

The first wedding was that of Miss May Allen Jones and Douglas T. Smith, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, at 3140 Ellis street, South Berkeley. Miss Gladys Jones acted as bridesmaid and Robert Edwards as best man. The room in which the ceremony was performed was beautifully decorated in pink.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith are well known in this city. The groom is treasurer of the Christian Endeavor Union and an active worker in the Park Congregational Church, where his wife also takes a great interest in both the Sunday School and other activities of the church.

The second wedding was that of Reuben E. Smith and Miss Berle Foster at the home of Mrs. M. E. Wyckoff, 1812 Fairview street, South Berkeley. The wedding was a very quiet affair; only the relatives of the contracting parties being present. Both of the young people are well known in the southern part of town. Mr. Smith is an electrician in the employ of the Sunset Company. After a brief honeymoon the young couple will make their home in this city.

AGREEMENT REACHED.

NEW YORK, June 19.—A modus vivendi has been agreed upon with Bolivia by which the time for reaching a definite arrangement of the Acre disagreement is extended to October 1, says a Herald dispatch from Rio Janeiro.

Congress has proclaimed Alfonso Pena vice-president.

THE FIRST BORN.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Advices from Guam announce the birth there of the first American child on the island. It is a girl and its father is Paymaster Ryan. The christening was marked by a big celebration in which the entire community joined.

PECULIAR DEATHS.

LONDON, June 19.—Several deaths, which have occurred in the works erected at Ciydash, near Swansea, for extracting nickel ore by the Munn process, have puzzled the leading British physicians who have gone there to investigate the matter. The men evidently were poisoned by fumes, but the post-mortem examination showed no trace of poison, while the symptoms prior to death were unfamiliar and seemed to point to a new disease.
